NO. 145—SIXTY-NINTH YEAR. VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, TUESDAY, MAY 31, 1927 EIGHTEEN PAGES

STORY IS TOLD BY DE PINEDO OF HIS ESCAPE

Delayed by Fog and Adverse Gales Fuel Was Running Out When He Sighted Schooner Beneath Him

AVIATOR ALIGHTS SAFELY ON WATER

Flyer Is Taken Aboard Vessel and Plane Is Towed Without Injury Hundreds of Miles—Flight to Continue

HORTA, Island Fayal, Azores, May 30.—Commander Francesco de Pinedo, Italian aviator, arrived here this morning on the Italian steamer Superga, which had his seaplane, the Santa Maria II, in tow.

Undaunted by his forced landing in the Atlantic, De Pinedo said that as soon as his plane had been put in flying order he would resume his four-continent journey which began from Cagliari on February 13 and has carried him to Africa, South America, the United States, Canada and Newfoundland. Interruption of the attempted hop from Trepassey, Nfld., to this port last Monday, the commander said, was caused by adverse weather conditions. The start from Trepassey was made in moderate weather, but the plane encountered a blanket of fog and for four hundred miles had to fly at a high altitude to get above the mist. At this height a strong contrary winds was encountered, slowing the speed of the machine and increasing the consumption of fuel.

When about 270 miles from Flores Island, the most westward of the Azores, the Portuguese schooner Sagrese was sighted. Being short of fuel and fearing he would be unable to reach Horta, De Pinedo decided to come down. The flyer was picked up by the schooner and the plane was towed for three days, when the Superga hove in sight and took the flyer aboard, also taking over the tow of the seaplane. The steamer proceeded very slowly to avoid further damage to the plane.

The flyer and his companions had a great reception. Thousands of persons watched the arrival from vantage points on the hills while local officials went on board to welcome the aviators.

KING PRESENTS NEW COLORS TO GUARDS IN QUEEN'S PRESENCE

LONDON, May 30.—Amidst a scene of impressive pageantry, King George yesterday in the grounds of Buckingham Palace presented new colors to the Irish Guards in the presence of Queen Mary, the Prince of Wales and many others of the royal family.

An interesting incident occurred when the old colors were borne along the front of the line. The military, of course, were at salute, and the civilian guests naturally uncovered. The Queen rose and stood erect, by her was her grandson, four-year-old Master Lascelles, son of Princess Mary. Noticing that he retained his hat the Queen took it off for him, afterwards indicating every appropriate occasion for uncovering. Towards the end of the ceremony the boy needed no prompting, and the King evidently observed this for at the close he patted his grandson approvingly on the head.

Conference Arranged in Railway Wage Dispute

MONTREAL, May 30.—Last-minute efforts to avert a possible strike of 10,000 freight handlers and checkers employed by the Canadian Pacific Railway by Hon. Peter Heenan, Federal Minister of Labor, today resulted in arrangements being made for a conference tomorrow between company officials and a committee representing the International Brotherhood, in which the men are members. The present situation is due to a wage dispute.

BRISTOL, Va., May 30.—Twelve persons are known to have been killed, more than a score are reported missing, a number injured and property damage to the extent of approximately a million dollars in a series of rain, wind, hail and electric storms that swept parts of Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia late last night and early today.

At Roxana, Ky., six persons were drowned while attempting to flee to places of safety after being trapped in their homes by flood waters.

TERMS SOVIET WORLD MENACE

Ruling Powers of Russia, Ambassador Herrick Says, Are Engaged in Paid Propaganda Throughout World

U.S. WILL REFUSE TO TOLERATE IT

PARIS, May 30.—Myron T. Herrick, U.S. ambassador, speaking at the American Military Cemetery at Suresnes today, declared that the ruling powers of Soviet Russia were engaged in paid propaganda activities throughout the world and that the United States would not tolerate the spread of Bolshevism to its shores.

Declaring that modern scientific methods were being applied to the scourge of war, the Ambassador said that these modern scientific methods are now "somewhat belatedly, being actively applied to the scourge of Bolshevism." He believed, he continued, "that the people in every country have got to choose between order and anarchy, between honesty and thievery, between everyday virtue and crime. Either we believe in orderly society or we don't; if we do we ought to use all the power within us to defend and advance it.

"The impudent, mischievous interference of paid, organized propaganda throughout the world has gone steadily on and, in common with others, I have been forced by these events to view with increasing apprehension this sinister movement."

CELEBRATED FIRM IS IN DIFFICULTIES

ARMSTRONG, WHITWORTH COMPANY ANNOUNCES HEAVY LOSS IN YEAR'S BUSINESS

Value of Newfoundland Property Written Down by Large Amount—Reconstruction Probable

LONDON, May 30.—There was a net loss of more than £500,000 in the business of the famous engineering and armament firm of Armstrong, Whitworth & Co. last year, it was announced.

The firm recently arranged a moratorium with its debenture and noteholders, the business having suffered from the unfavorable conditions which have prevailed in the past two years among the heavy industries in Great Britain. Complaint is made that the firm's accounts are not over-informative and that the assets of the Newfoundland Power and Paper Co., one of its subsidiaries, which were entered the previous year as being over £5,000,000, now stand at under £3,000,000.

The directors of Armstrong, Whitworth & Company admit that the general scheme of reconstruction and reduction of capital must be undertaken eventually.

SOVIET WISHES TO TRADE STILL

LONDON, May 30.—Though it is still stated that the Russian ship Youshar, with the Soviet officials aboard, will sail tomorrow, there seems to be a partial suspension of the preparation for the departure of the Russians and an air of mystery as to their intentions. No information was forthcoming from Chesham House, the Soviet Legation.

The explanation of the mystery is probably to be found in the application made by A. P. Rosengolz, Russian Charge d'Affaires, to Sir Austen Chamberlain for permission for a larger number of Russian officials than contemplated by the British Government, to remain for the liquidation of Russian interests.

The Government seems to be considering the question of how many such Russians shall be permitted to stay in accordance with Sir Austen's last note to the Soviet, for the Foreign Secretary's promised statement has not yet been issued. It is understood that it is Moscow's desire to keep as many as possible of these trading organizations in Great Britain.

Mr. Baldwin Cannot Come In Time for Celebration

TORONTO, May 30—Mrs. M. Huntingdon Whiteley, daughter of Prime Minister Baldwin of Great Britain, who, with her husband, is returning from a trip across Canada, intimated today that her father would find it impossible to visit this country for the celebration of the Diamond Jubilee of Confederation, and she could not say when he was coming.

Red Cross Official Dies in Plane Crash

BATON ROUGE, La., May 30.—Earl Kilpatrick, chief of rehabilitation of American Red Cross, was killed when the seaplane U.S. 15, in which he was a passenger en route from Memphis to New Orleans, crashed in a field at Hohen, forty miles south of here, late today. Lieutenant Joe Gregory, naval aviator, piloting the plane, was unhurt.

SOVIET AGENT WANTS CANADA TO RECONSIDER

Telegram Is Sent to Premier From Representative in Montreal Asking for Reopening of Decision

ANSWER IS GIVEN REFUSING REQUEST

Agent Says That Telegram Was Sent Without Authority From Moscow and Was Disapproved There

OTTAWA, May 30.—The Department of External Affairs here this evening made public communications which passed between the Government and L. F. Guerus, official agent of the Union of Soviet Russia in Canada, stationed in Montreal. One communication was in reply to a telegram which Mr. Guerus addressed to Premier Mackenzie King requesting the Canadian Government to reconsider its decision to end the trade agreement.

The reply, signed by Dr. O. D. Skelton, Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs, told Mr. Guerus the Government was not prepared to reconsider the decision. On the same date that this was dispatched, last Saturday, Mr. Guerus was sending a letter to Premier King stating that Moscow had disapproved of his telegram to the Prime Minister and had instructed him to leave Canada as soon as possible.

"In view of the above," the letter stated, "I would greatly appreciate your ignoring the contents of my telegram. It was sent to you as a personal communication and without consulting my Government. It is with profound regret that I must notify you of my intention to close the offices of our official agency and trade delegation within two weeks."

Premier King wrote today acknowledging the receipt of this letter.

The British Foreign Office was today requested by the Canadian Government to inform the Soviet Charge d'Affaires in London that the Dominion had cancelled the agreement of 1922.

ADVISORY BOARD TO BE APPOINTED

MAYOR PENDRAY RECOMMENDS BUSINESS MEN'S GROUP TO HELP INDUSTRIAL COMMITTEE

Advice and Financial Assistance Needed With Many Important Projects Now Before Council

Appointment of a small group of business men to act in an advisory capacity to the industrial committee of the City Council will be made shortly. This decision was made at last night's meeting of the Council.

Mayor J. Carl Pendray made the recommendation, pointing out how necessary such an appointment was to the city's industrial future. He suggested that at least three members of the group be selected from the Victoria Chamber of Commerce.

"I feel that there are so many important projects before our industrial committee that advice of business men would be most valuable. Further, there are many worth while projects put before your committee which require a certain amount of financial help. I feel sure that the Chamber of Commerce would greatly assist in helping to start many of the new industries," the Mayor stated in his letter. Mayor Pendray was not present at last night's meeting, so Ald. Marchant occupied the chair.

Ald. Holmes, in seconding this recommendation, pointed out that Mr. Roger Pinneo would be leaving the city's services shortly and that the industrial committee would be faced with a great deal of work that Mr. Pinneo had been looking after. The advice of influential business men was needed in many important matters. There was only one retired business man on the Council, Ald. Harvey, and Ald. Holmes felt that there were business men of this city who would gladly help in the advancement of Victoria.

Ald. Woodward opposed the motion on the grounds that the business men's group would act only in an advisory capacity and take no responsibilities for the action of the Council upon their advice. Ald. Woodward cast the only opposing vote.

NEW WATER RATE IS RECOMMENDED

Committee and Commissioner Submit Revised Scales—Would Be in Form of an Experiment

FURTHER STUDY TO BE GIVEN QUESTION

Reductions in the water rates were recommended by the water committee to last night's meeting of the City Council. While Mr. F. M. Preston, water commissioner, signed the report, it was only as an alternative. He submitted separate recommendations of his own. Alderman Woodward, after explaining what the reductions would mean, moved that the water committee's report be adopted. Alderman Mara moved an amendment that the report be laid over for one week until further study could be given the matter. The amendment carried, with Aldermen Brown, Clearihue, Holmes, Mara and Marchant voting for it. Aldermen Woodward, Litchfield, Harvey and Dewar voted for the adoption of the report.

The water committee's report recommended the penalty of seventeen cents be eliminated; $1.25 net for any quantity of water up to 300 cubic feet per month, and twenty-five cents per 100 cubic feet for the next 400 cubic feet or part thereof; ten cents net per 100 cubic feet on all water above 700 cubic feet per month, for industrial and commercial use, and 10.8 cents net per 100

Liquor Candy Fines Reduced by Council After Application

THE City Council last night reduced the fines placed upon two Victoria firms convicted of selling liquor chocolates on May 20. The following remission of fines was decided upon: E. A. Morris, Limited, which was fined $1,000, be remitted $750, and John Harris, who was fined $300, be remitted $225.

This follows similar action taken by the Vancouver Council after those upon whom the penalty had been placed appealed to that body.

BRITISH PRESS PARTY COMING

PROVINCIAL EDITORS OF OLD COUNTRY TO VISIT VICTORIA IN MONTH OF AUGUST

Mr. C. B. Foster, of Canadian Pacific Railway, Announces Several Tours Touching City

Tourist travel parties, which have become quite a feature in the annual Summer movement, will again play an important part in the coming season.

It is announced by Mr. C. B. Foster, general passenger traffic manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway, that among the parties to come through to the Coast will be another of Dean Laird's organized tours from Eastern Canada, another special train organized by Laval University for French-Canadians, a tour under the auspices of The New Outlook, the official organ of the United Church, for which 200 have booked, and there will be a touring party of British provincial editors to the number of 100 to come through in August, as well as those tours already announced. The latter include the British mining organization, the World's Poultry Congress, and the United States bankers, all of which will come to this city, the bankers being en route to the convention in the late Summer in Seattle.

Mr. Foster is now on his way to Victoria on a periodical tour.

CAPTAIN WILKINS WILL FOLLOW ARCTIC BIRDS

By CAPTAIN GEORGE HUBERT WILKINS

(Copyright, 1927, in all countries, by the North American Newspaper Alliance)

POINT BARROW, Alaska, May 29.—After a perfect trip over the Endicott Mountains, Alger Graham and I arrived here yesterday morning at 9:15 and are now grooming our plane for another hop into the Arctic "blind spot."

We are installing radio equipment and instruments from the Alaskan, which we were unable to fly from Fairbanks because of propeller trouble. We could not wait to get the proper propeller for the big monoplane, so took the smaller Stinson instead.

Just what our course will be after taking off from Point Barrow depends upon the discoveries we make in the unexpored area northwest of here. If there is land in this area we will find it. We will gather meteorological and other scientific data.

Ducks and geese fly off into this region from Point Barrow every Spring. That is why many old-timers believe land lies in that direction. We will encounter fog in all probability. No man has been where we are going. Our flight may bring us out at Grant Land or Greenland, or it may mean an all-Summer trek back across the ice fields for Alger Graham and myself. Whatever we are to encounter we will learn soon, for we will take off as soon as the Detroit News II, our plane, is serviced and tuned.

General Election in Irish Free State Is Becoming Hot Battle

In Opposition to Government Are Irreconcilables, Led by De Valera, and New National League, Led by Captain William Redmond—Four Hundred Candidates for One Hundred and Fifty-Three Seats

Smoke Bomb Is Thrown at Premier While Walking Through Dublin Crowd

DUBLIN, May 30.—Elections proverbially are uncertain, but the approaching Irish Free State general election seems to be the acme of uncertainty. The election will be held on June 8 and the new Dail Eireann will meet June 23.

Seven groups have candidates in the field and there are upward of 400 candidates in the 153 constituencies, hence there is considerable scope for speculation on the result. The chief struggle is between the Cosgrave Government and the irreconcilable Republicans, of whom Mr. de Valera is the nominal head. However, the new National League party, with Captain William A. Redmond as its leader, is likely to play an important part in the contest. Though the new party's candidates are comparatively few in numbers they are strong in influence.

President William T. Cosgrave's re-election is regarded as probable, but some of his colleagues are apprehensive that he may not be returned to the Dail.

Mr. Emmon de Valera is active in his campaign of rallying the Republicans to his standard once more. His appeal is chiefly along the line of asking the electors to support the candidate who opposes the treaty by which the Irish Free State was established.

BOMB THROWN AT PREMIER

So hot has the election contest become that a smoke bomb was thrown at President Cosgrave and Mr. Kevin O'Higgins, Minister of Justice, in Dublin yesterday, when the two ministers were walking through the crowd at the conclusion of a meeting which they had just addressed. The bomb did not explode. The alleged bomb thrower was arrested. It is believed the supporters of the Cosgrave Administration will have the largest group in the new Parliament, and will be able to continue in control of affairs of the Irish Free State, with or without an alliance with any other party.

BRITAIN SENDS NOTE TO EGYPT

British Officer Insisted Upon as Sirdar—Intense Excitement in Cairo Over Sending of Warships—Cabinet Crisis

BRITISH ATTITUDE FIRM BUT FRIENDLY

LONDON, May 30.—The Westminster Gazette's Cairo correspondent thinks that the presentation of the British note may lead to a cabinet crisis. Intense excitement prevails, he says, because of the note and the dispatch of British warships. He understands the note insists upon the retention of the Sirdar and protests against the persistent policy of the Egyptian War Ministry to destroy the authority of British officers serving the Egyptian army.

There are rumors that Sarwat Pasha will summon a secret session of parliament to consider the British demands.

FIRM BUT FRIENDLY

CAIRO, Egypt, May 30.—The British High Commissioner, Lord Lloyd, presented a note tonight to Sarwat Pasha, the Egyptian Premier, on the question of the removal of the Sirdar as commander-in-chief of the Egyptian army. The removal of the Sirdar has been recommended by an Egyptian parliamentary committee, but has been opposed by the British Government.

The contents of the note have not been disclosed and it is understood that the cabinet will meet tomorrow morning for discussion of the document, which is believed to be firm but couched in friendly terms, fixing no time limit for the cabinet's answer.

LONDON, May 30.—It was stated at the Foreign Office today that the British warships now en route to

NANAIMO STORE ROBBED IN NIGHT

BUILDING OF DAVID SPENCER, LTD., ENTERED FROM ROOF BETWEEN 2 A.M. AND 3 A.M.

Glycerine Used to Wreck Safe—Cash and Cheques Stolen—Burglars Leave Unseen

(Special to The Colonist)

NANAIMO, May 30.—At an early hour this morning cracksmen entered the Nanaimo store of David Spencer, Ltd., blew open the safe and escaped with approximately $3,000 in cash and $2,000 in cheques. The robbers secured entry to the building through a skylight. They used a beam to slide down from the skylight into the top floor of the building, and although they had to pass over several crockery tables not a single dish was broken. The safe, which contained receipts of a pay day, was located near the front door and under the stairway leading to the manager's private desk. Apparently the safe was wrecked by three charges of glycerine set off from a battery some twelve feet distant, as this amount of wire was found this morning after the robbery.

The burglars evidently intended to remove all traces of finger prints and with this object in view made use of silk hose and other materials handy to cover the tools they used in their operations. They stole a club bag from the premises in which to place the loot secured from the safe.

That the robbery took place some time between 2 and 3 o'clock this morning is borne out by the fact that Mrs. Haddow, who has charge of the Spencer rooms adjoining the store, heard a slight explosion at that hour. Residents across the street also heard a report at the same hour but thought nothing more about the occurrence. The robbers made a clean get-away and apparently were not seen by any one at the time of the burglary.

VANCOUVER, May 30.—Provincial police officers are actively engaged in running down the robbers who broke into Spencers store at Nanaimo. It is stated by Walter Owen, assistant superintendent of British Columbia police today. The loss was reported to him as about $2,000, he said.

CHINESE ARMIES FIGHT BATTLES

NORTHERNERS APPEAR TO BE LOSING GROUND TO BOTH NATIONALIST GENERALS

Numbers of Wounded Arriving at Hankow Indicates Advance Made at Heavy Cost

SHANGHAI, May 30.—News from Northern headquarters at Peking regarding the offensive in Honan is taken here as indicating that the battle is not progressing too favorably. Previous reports from Northern sources stated that the Southerners, or Nationalists, were being driven back.

Meanwhile the advance of the Moderate Nationalists, under Gen. Chang Kai Shek, through Anhwei province in the direction of Tientsin is continuing, according to a foreign wireless message from Nanking, Chang's headquarters.

It is reported that Chang's troops captured Ming Kwang, seventy miles from Pukuw, and that another force from the West took Peng Pu, 110 miles northwest of Pukow, capturing five locomotives and 200 cars. An attack on the railway junction of Suchow by the Nationalists is believed imminent.

Chang Kai Shek, accompanied by motion picture photographers, crossed the Yangtze yesterday and proceeded to the front.

REAL FIGHTING

SHANGHAI, May 30.—News from reliable sources says that the advance of the Nationalist, or Southern, army through the Honan province northward appears to be progressing steadily, contrary to reports that the Southerners had suffered a heavy defeat in that province. The Southern advance, as the continued arrival of numbers of wounded at Hankow testifies, appears to be at considerable cost.

General Feng Yu-Hsiang, who is commander-in-chief of the Hankow Nationalist armies, is reported to have captured Kunghsien, Honan, an important Northern arsenal, forty miles west of Chang Chow. A strict censorship has been imposed at Peking.

CONSERVATIVES MEET IN FREE CONVENTION

WINNIPEG, May 30.—"Conservatives of Canada will meet in convention unfettered by any sort of pre-arranged plan or commitment," Hon. Robert Rogers declared today in referring to reports that certain steps were contemplated in advance of the convention in Winnipeg next September.

One of the reports indicated that representatives of the Conservative Party in Ontario, Quebec and the Maritimes would meet in Montreal prior to the convention to agree upon a platform; and the other suggested that if Hon. Howard Ferguson is offered and refuses the leadership, the selection of a leader should be left in his hands.

"These reports," said Mr. Rogers, "are, in my judgment, so much cobweb and moonshine. They are the work of irresponsibles and mischief makers. They proceed from no responsible element in the Conservative party that I know of. The rank and file of the party clearly understands that anything designed to deprive the convention of initiative or to limit its freedom of action would strike at the whole purpose of the convention and insure its failure.

Girls Are Rescued in Toronto Factory Fire

TORONTO, May 30.—Several girl employees of Bingham's confectionery were trapped in a room on the second story of the building late this afternoon, when an ammonia tank burst, but they were eventually rescued by firemen and brought down ladders to the street. When the fumes spread through the room the girls threw open the windows and leaned far out, holding handkerchiefs over their noses until help arrived. The firemen were forced to wear gas masks, so strong were the fumes. The girls all recovered when they reached the fresh air.

Fascists Are Killed In Riot in New York

NEW YORK, May 30.—The black shirts of Fascists bulked large in New York's Memorial Day. Twe men were killed in the morning, reputedly by political adversaries, and in the afternoon there was a minor riot at Times Square when 500 of the adherents of Mussolini pursued through the streets three men who had attacked one of their number. A Fascist delegation of 200 that marched in the Memorial Day parade was guarded by police to avert disorder.

The men killed were Joseph Carisi and Nicholas Amoroso. They were on their way to join the parade with twenty comrades when they were attacked at 183rd Street and Third Avenue. Amoroso was shot through the heart and Carisi was stabbed to death.

One of the first cabled pictures from Paris of Captain Charles Lindbergh's transatlantic flight shows (above) the intrepid young aviator being welcomed and congratulated by United States Ambassador Herrick. This exclusive photograph was flown from Paris to London, where it was cabled to New York by the Bartlane process.

LONDONERS FETE CAPT. LINDBERGH

YOUTHFUL HERO CENTRE OF WHIRL OF ENTERTAINMENT AT EMPIRE'S CAPITAL

American Flyer Anxious to Get Home and May Sail on George Washington, June 2

LONDON, May 30.—Charles Lindbergh's desire to return home at the earliest possible moment has brought into consideration his sailing on the George Washington, June 2, though final arrangements are still held in abeyance.

The youthful hero's whirl of entertainment in London comes to an end Wednesday with a banquet by combined American organizations, and it is reported that he may begin packing his monoplane immediately so that it can be taken with him in the event that he decides to return on the George Washington.

Rounding out one of the busiest days of his career since he flew himself into world fame, Lindbergh sat down tonight as the guest of honor at the Association of American Correspondents' banquet at which the American Ambassador, Alanson B. Houghton, who sails tomorrow for New York, was also a guest. Charles Stephenson Smith, of the Associated Press, presided.

The captain, who now has become somewhat accustomed to public speaking, made a short talk, patting the reporters on the back, not only the London reporters, but those in San Diego, St. Louis, Little Falls, N.Y.; Paris, Brussels, everywhere—the reporters who had co-operated, he said, 100 per cent in chronicling everything he did and even in anticipating some of his plans for the future.

The banquet concluded at 9 o'clock to give Ambassador Houghton an opportunity to motor to Southampton so he might go aboard the Leviathan, and also to allow Lindbergh a chance to get to bed before midnight for the first time in about two weeks.

It became known that among those awaiting Captain Lindbergh at Croydon, Surrey, was Mrs. Minnie Watson, of Winchmore Hill, a cousin, who came to London from Toronto twenty-two years ago. She was Lindbergh's only relative on the ground and she visited him today at the Embassy.

IRRIGATION METERS

A fifty per cent discount off the monthly bill on irrigation meters where residential properties have separate meters for irrigation, was also recommended. Those installing separate meters for this residential irrigation service would have meters installed at a rate fifty per cent less than ordinary.

These recommendations would apply to all city consumers east of Victoria Harbor, industries and railways in Victoria West, domestic and municipal consumers in Esquimalt Municipality. These rates, however, would not apply where special contracts exist.

Alderman Woodward pointed out that these rates would be put into effect this Summer in the way of an experiment. If the waterworks revenue was reduced then the city could reconsider the whole matter and revert to the old scale. He explained, however, that the city's entire waterworks system would have its pressure increased this Summer so that a reasonable increase in water usage could be expected, at least sufficient to overcome the loss incurred by the reduction in rates.

The existing rate is 600 cubic feet of water for $1.67. All above this twelve cents per 100 cubic feet, subject to ten per cent discount. All commercial services pay meter rents ranging from thirty cents a month for a five-eighths of an inch pipe to $3 a month for a six-inch pipe.

SERVICE CHARGE

The water commissioner's recommendation is that all services pay a service charge, carrying no water with it and no discount. The charge would range from $1 for a five-eighths of an inch pipe to $18 for a six-inch pipe. No difference is made in his recommendation between residential and commercial services. Water would be paid for as follows:

First 3,000 cubic feet ten cents per 100 cubic feet; next 30,000 cubic feet nine cents per 100 cubic feet, and all above 33,000 cubic feet eight cents per 100 cubic feet. This rate is based on the American Waterworks Standard Rate.

The water commissioner's first recommendations were more in the form of equalization of city water rates. The recommendation he submitted to the Council last night, however, gives a reduction compared with the present rate.

Alderman Woodward expressed the wish that the reduced rates be put into effect as soon as possible in order that people could take advantage of the irrigation privileges.

Alderman Clearihue wanted to know why such reductions were proposed. That he had not heard any complaint from the citizens with regard to the rates.

When questioned as to what means would be taken to create an incentive for people to pay their bills when the penalty was eliminated, Alderman Woodward stated that it was proposed to cut the water off if there were two months' lapse in payment.

Under the water committee's new rates domestic water consumers would get 700 cubic feet of water instead of 600 cubic feet for the same rate as they were paying now

Legal Action Will Be Taken by City To Secure $34,500

LEGAL action will be taken against Fairservice & Gierin to secure payment of $34,500, due the city in two installments on the Goldstream watershed timber, which the company agreed to buy from the Esquimalt Water Works Department. This action was decided upon at last night's meeting of the City Council, following advice given by the city's counsel, Elliott, Maclean & Shandley.

Alderman Woodward explained that this was an agreement that the city had inherited when it purchased the Esquimalt Water Works. For twelve months the city had been negotiating a new agreement but no decision had been come to. Mr. Shandley had advised action to secure payment of two installments before another twelve months went by.

Egypt from Malta were sent as a precautionary measure, such as the Government had taken on various previous occasions. From the tone of recent debates in the Egyptian chamber, Downing Street officials say Egyptian extremists are trying to create a wholly artificial situation of tenseness.

ISLAND OF MALTA, May 30.—The battleship Barnham, with the Vice-Admiral aboard, the Royal Sovereign with Rear Admiral Norris and the Malaya have received orders to sail immediately for an unknown destination.

EXTREMISTS MAKE TROUBLE

LONDON, May 30.—According to The Daily Mail, Lord Lloyd, High Commissioner in Egypt, informed the Premier, Sarwat Pasha, last week that the question of the Sirdar's powers never entered into the agreement whereby Great Britain granted independence to Egypt, and Great Britain firmly maintained that the airdarship must be held by a British officer.

The Mail further asserts that Lord Lloyd has lately observed signs of the extremist faction of the Nationalists, whose leader is Zagloul Pasha, getting out of control, and that a demonstration of Great Britain's authority is desirable as a precaution against the renewal of the murder of British subjects.

The Sirdar is Major-General Charles W. Spinks.

MR. F. HODGES IS RESIGNING POST

HE WITHDRAWS AS SECRETARY OF INTERNATIONAL MINERS' FEDERATION AT LAST

Action Is Said to Be Culmination of Campaign Carried on by Secretary Cook

LONDON, May 30. — Mr. Frank Hodges, prominent British trade unionist, today resigned as Secretary of the International Miners' Federation, a post he held since 1925.

His withdrawal marks the culmination of long campaign carried on by his opponents led by Mr. A. J. Cook, general secretary of the Miners' Federation of Great Britain and one of the prime movers in the British general strike last year. Mr. Cook was said to be angry because Mr. Hodges had advocated the lengthening of the miners' working hours during the coal strike. It is also recalled that Mr. Hodges criticized the general strike. It is not unlikely that his successor will be Mr. Cook or some other radical.

JUNIOR PIPE BAND AT GOVERNMENT HOUSE

Picturesque Spectacle Furnished as Musicians March Through Rockland Avenue District

The Canadian Scottish Junior Pipe Band furnished residents of the upper Rockland Avenue district with an interesting spectacle last evening, when they paraded from Girls' Central School via St. Charles Street and Rockland Avenue, to Government House, where they serenaded His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and his guests during dinner.

The band, which composed nine pipers, seven drummers and ten piper pupils, presented a picturesque appearance as they swung through the darkened streets, lighted only by torches borne by the younger pupils, and led, in the absence of Pipe Major Wallace, by Acting Pipe Major Milton. Reaching Government House, they went around to the south lawn, beneath the dining-room windows, and rendered a programme of well-known airs, including "Barren Rocks of Aden." Presently a message was sent for the musicians to parade at the front entrance, and here, from the steps, the pipers were addressed in turn by His Honor, Mr. W. C. Nichol and Mr. E. W. Beatty, all of whom complimented the players on their fine music and smart appearance. Mr. Nichol's attention being drawn to six-year-old Archie Holden, the youngest member of the band, requested permission to furnish the diminutive piper with a complete Highland outfit and band equipment, the generous offer being promptly accepted.

At the conclusion of the programme, His Honor invited the boys into the dining-room, where they were regaled with cake and coffee. The musicians' entry and exit was very effective, the little group marching two and two, led by torch bearers, and the pipes playing lustily. From Government House they marched down Rockland Avenue to "Schuhum," where they serenaded Miss Agnew after she had given her permission to the secretary-manager, Mr. Cecil French.

GUARDIAN DISAPPROVES PROPOSED NEW ORDER

LONDON, May 30.—In connection with the Royal Society of Canada's proposal that a special Dominion honor similar to the French Legion of Honor or the British Order of Merit be created, The Manchester Guardian considers these examples hardly happy.

"The first began with the best of intentions," the newspaper says, but in one or another of its varying grades is now found decorating hundreds of nonentities. The second has so far been strictly preserved, but it is a child yet among honors, and may, by less scrupulous authorities, be handed out in future as freely as Nova Scotian baronetcies by James I. There is something therefore, a little sad about the belief of the Royal Society of Canada that they can institute an honor that shall not be debased. Their plan is at least an improvement upon ennoblement by wealth and parentage, but that the present advisory committee will yet be held by the bulk of the Canadians to be fallible, though we trust not corrupt, is all too certain."

MR. MASSEY GIVEN FRIENDLY REPLY

WASHINGTON GOVERNMENT CONCILIATORY ON QUESTION OF CANADIANS AT BORDER

Every Possible Leeway to Be Given in Operation of U.S. Immigration Act

WASHINGTON, May 30. — Two things stand out in the Secretary of State's message to the Hon. Vincent Massey, Canadian Minister, regarding the recent border immigration ruling. The first is that Regulation 86, of the Department of Labor, which caused the protest by Canada, is by no means the last word in the border-crossing question; the second is that the statement secured the promise of the Labor Department that Canadian citizens, irrespective of birth, are not to be deprived of employment they already have on the United States side of the border until every concession possible under the Immigration Act has been invoked to meet their case.

The conciliatory tone of the note is in marked contrast to the unyielding attitude of the Immigration Department at the outset of the negotiations. The note avows Hon. Frank B. Kellogg's desire to continue the free and friendly border-crossing privileges enjoyed hitherto by both sides. The note invites Mr. Massey and his staff to make free use of the State Department and to continue studies of the whole immigration question with a view of clearing up any difficulties which have arisen out of the more stringent provisions of the United States immigration law of 1924. It promises also the recommendation to Congress, next session, for the removal of any clauses tending to disturb friendly relations between Canada and the United States.

ALL POSSIBLE LEEWAY

Border officials have been instructed to give every possible leeway to Canadians, native or non-natives, to assist the former in taking out visas as native Canadians and the latter in securing places on the quota of the land of their birth.

"Meantime, the note makes clear that the whole question is still open for discussion," Mr. Massey said. "In fact, negotiations might be said to be beginning now. We are free to make our recommendations to the United States Administration and from time to time as individual problems arise we shall certainly make our recommendations whenever necessary."

Canada will reply within a few days to the note. Ottawa has the text and a member of the legation staff is there, conferring with the Prime Minister.

British Officer Freed From Charge of Spying When Trial Is Heard

LONDON, May 30.—The case against Lieutenant-Commander Colin Mayers, retired British naval officer, fizzled out today when the Lord Chief Justice stated in Old Bailey Court that the prosecution had withdrawn the more serious charges and that Mayers had pleaded guilty to offences under the Official Secrets Act.

His Lordship said he was satisfied that, in retaining submarine plans after his retirement, Mayers had no purpose prejudicial to the safety or interests of the state, but only wanted to improve submarines for the British Navy.

He bound Mayers over to appear for judgment if called upon. This is tantamount to discharge.

SURVEY MADE OF PRAIRIE OUTLOOK

Soil Conditions Promise Good Yield Which May Offset Decreased Acreage

WINNIPEG, May 30.—Further rains fell in all three provinces of the Canadian West during the past week, precipitation being heaviest in central and southern portions and lightest in Northwest Alberta, says the weekly report of the Canadian Pacific Agricultural Department here. Work was suspended during the greater part of the week, and in many sections of the West three or four days of good drying weather will be necessary before operations can be resumed.

This will mean a further reduction in wheat acreage, particularly in Manitoba, which has apparently experienced more heavy rains this Spring than either of the other two provinces. Continued warm weather is the urgent need now for, with this, growth will be sufficiently rapid to largely offset delay in seeding. Soil moisture is abundant everywhere, and in this regard conditions were never more favorable.

Early wheat is from two to four inches high and of healthy color and even stand. Pastures have been backward but warm weather will bring in an abundance of grass before long.

MANITOBA

The situation in lower lying sections in Manitoba is serious, meaning considerable reduction in wheat acreage, in some instances entirely eliminating wheat as a crop this year. Estimates vary greatly as to the percentage of decrease in wheat acreage that will be ultimately recorded, some districts showing as high as eighty per cent decrease. Taking the whole of the province into consideration it seems reasonably certain that there will be a twenty to twenty-five per cent decrease in the area under wheat. Averaging the province over eighty-five per cent of wheat is now in and thirty-five to forty per cent of coarse grains. Early sown wheat is three to five inches above ground.

SASKATCHEWAN

Little seeding has been done in Saskatchewan since last week's report, about eighty per cent of the intended wheat acreage having been put in and probably thirty-five per cent of the oats and barley. Seeding operations cannot be resumed extensively before Tuesday or Wednesday owing to rain. Some districts in the north report fifteen to twenty per cent increase in wheat acreage, but indications for the entire province are that a ten per cent decrease will be recorded. The crop, while later than usual is starting off with much better than average prospects of success, owing to moisture.

Grasses are making exceptional growth and pastures are affording good grazing, with the result that stock are making rapid gains.

ALBERTA

Wheat seeding in many parts of Alberta is completed and the average will run from ninety to ninety-five per cent. Coarse grain seeding has proceeded where soil conditions permitted, and up to the present time fifty-five to sixty per cent of oats and barley are in. Early sown wheat is up four to five inches, exhibiting good color and healthy stand. Many districts show increased wheat acreage, contrasting with this many localities record decrease. A careful survey, however, indicates that the total wheat area will show a decrease in neighborhood of five per cent as compared with last year.

The rye crop is doing exceptionally well and looks promising. Grass on the range is coming along rapidly and stock commencing to thrive. Practically 100 per cent of the sugar beet acreage has been seeded and a large part of the crop is up.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

In British Columbia continued warm weather is all that is needed to promote rapid growth. Small fruit and berry crops look promising, and while the yield per acre will probably be less than last year there is a greater bearing area, so that the total crop should about equal if not exceed that of 1926. Strawberries promise a good crop, but large shipments will not be made till June 15. Raspberries and loganberries suffered light Winter injuries. The extent of the damage to fruit trees in Okanagan will probably not be so great as expected.

NEW YORK CHEERS CANADIAN TROOPS

NEW YORK, May 30.—The Canadian Black Watch received an enthusiastic welcome here today. Marching in the Memorial Day parade under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic, as guests of the American Legion, the Canadian soldiers captured the hearts of the thousands of New Yorkers who saw them march along some of the city's main thoroughfares to the skirl of their regimental pipes.

The detachment comprised six officers and 100 non-commissioned officers and men of the 5th Royal Highlanders of Montreal, commanded by Lieutenant-Colonel J. D. Macpherson.

Chosen from the survivors of the regiment who went overseas with the first Canadian contingent, they were loudly cheered as their medals, kilts and sporrans swung from side to side to the accompaniment of lively Highland tunes. The Canadian Kilties were escorted by the John Purroy Mitchell Post of the American Legion, and accompanied by the British Great War Veterans of America.

FIRE SITUATION IS STILL SATISFACTORY

Reports Received by Forestry Department Shows Relatively Few Conflagrations This Year

According to information compiled in the office of the Minister of Lands for the Province the forest fire situation throughout B.C. continued through the week ending last Friday to be tremendously improved over the record for the corresponding period of 1926, and also for the year preceding, that of 1925.

The statement is made that the fires that have been so far reported this season have been attributed to travelers and to the spread of brush burning fires. One fire from lightning has been listed.

The reports from all the districts contain the information that the weather conditions are marked by cool weather with heavy showers. From Mount Begbie lookout comes a report of a fall of snow. The conditions from all the districts are therefore good with respect to the combatting of any fires.

The report for the different districts show that the total number of fires up to last Friday represented a total of only seventy. For the corresponding period during 1926 there were 310 fires and in 1925, 409.

The record of the fires to date for the present year, and for the season previous is set out as follows:

	1927	1926
Cariboo	4	26
Kamloops	7	14
Southern Interior	32	174
Prince George	12	37
Prince Rupert	9	18
Vancouver	6	41
Total	70	310

New Brunswick Seat Not to Be Contested

ANDOVER, N.B., May 30.—Decision not to contest the approaching by-election in the constituency of Carleton-Victoria, made vacant by the death of Hon. J. K. The resolution dwelt on the necessity of affording the present Government at Ottawa every facility for carrying out the recommendations of the Duncan report.

MR. E. W. BEATTY'S VISIT

It is illustrative of the growing regard which the Canadian Pacific Railway Company is directing towards this quarter of Canada that its President, Mr. E. W. Beatty, should be a visitor here so soon again. The leading officials of that company always have had the happy knack of keeping in close personal contact with the operations of the system, of learning at first hand of its developments and its growing needs and of coming into contact with the various shades of public opinion throughout the Dominion. It is, however, a tribute of value to the West that Mr. Beatty should have found it desirable to come here so soon after his last annual visit. It means that there are matters which require his personal attention, as there are bound to be at a time when throughout the country there are evidences of renewed optimism and awakening prosperity.

As a company the Canadian Pacific Railway, and in person Mr. Beatty, as well as Mr. D. C. Coleman, the Vice-President for the West, have always taken the keenest interest in the development of Victoria. The C.P.R. has been a particularly energetic and enterprising factor in the growth of the community. It has made very large investments here and its optimism regarding Victoria's future has been justified in many respects. That it will be justified to the full both in what it has done and in what it has in contemplation is the hope of everyone. Our citizens on their part keenly appreciate the almost unexampled initiative shown by the company, and they have the right to see in the repeated visits of Mr. Beatty and other high officials of the great corporation that the progress of this community is being followed very closely, and that hereafter, as in the past, no opportunity which will aid in the development of this section of the Dominion will be overlooked by the C.P.R., wherever and whenever sympathy and tangible assistance are desirable.

NON-STOP FLIGHTS

It is still a question if Captain Lindbergh broke the official non-stop record flight by his feat in flying from New York to Paris. The actual distance he traversed is given as upwards of 3,400 miles, but, for the purposes of official records, the direct distance only between points is credited and the direct distance from New York to Paris is probably little more than 3,250 miles. Up to the time of the Lindbergh flight and the flight undertaken by Flight-Lieutenants G. R. Carr and L. E. M. Gilman from England to India, the non-stop record was that from Paris to Jask, a distance of 3,390 miles, held by Lieutenant Costes and Captain Rignot. The England to India flight was brought to an end through an enforced descent in the Persian Gulf, but not until the aviators had covered upwards of 3,400 miles.

To determine now who holds the longest non-stop flight is an interesting problem. On the route mapped out by Captain Nungesser from Paris to New York the distance was 3,700 miles, but had he been successful in accomplishing the feat his mileage would only have been reckoned as 3,500. It appears to be a longer distance from Paris to New York than from New York to Paris by air, and the manner in which such difference is reckoned must enter into any computation about records. The question is only one of passing interest for within a few months, in every probability, the records of both Captain Lindbergh and Flight-Lieutenants Carr and Gilman, as well as that of Lieutenant Costes and Captain Rignot, will be beaten. Even now the French are preparing a specially built machine to break the non-stop flight record. The latest achievements have given an immense impetus to the development of aviation.

U.S.A. AND CHINA

Mr. Rodney Gilbert, an American journalist at Peking, has striking condemnation for his Government in its failure to follow up the original demand for reparations for the Nanking outrages. The reason he assigns to the fact that his country is too much immersed in petty politics. The fact is that the United States has, to all intents and purposes, withdrawn from cooperation with the other Powers in exacting reparations for the outrages in question. The feeling among Americans in China is one of disgust and discouragement. Mr. Stone, in a dispatch from Peking, says that Washington's replies, "to the strong and informative despatches from all branches of the American official service in China, evade all issues raised and make recommendations which indicate that the dispatches are not read or are deliberately ignored. When these recommendations are challenged from China and discussion of the issues is thereby forced upon Washington the Administration quotes authorities in refutation of the dispatches which are an insult to all American officialdom in this country."

There is a new conception of the United States growing up in the hearts of Americans in China and it is that the indifference shown to their position and needs indicates, according to Mr. Rodney, "nothing but national decadence as a result of over-prosperity." It is regarded as a last straw that an intimation should be sent from Washington to Admiral Williams that the United States Legation should be evacuated to Shanghai. Mr. Rodney's viewpoint is further emphasized by the following: "In Legation circles it is believed that Great Britain and Japan are now preparing to take strong action in the Yangtze, which may result in a renewed Anglo-Japanese Entente, since America, by backing water, obviously cannot be depended upon as an ally." That, according to Mr. Rodney, is the opinion prevalent in the American Legation at Peking. He concludes by saying, "It is known here that America was offered every opportunity and inducement to participate in measures based upon a clear-sighted appraisement of China's hopeless chaos, but that the Washington Government, wafted hither and thither by petty politics, not only eventually withdrew but delayed effective action."

THE WISH TO CELEBRATE

It is a matter of congratulation to the citizens generally, and to the Victoria Day Celebration Committee in particular, that there is a substantial balance standing to the credit of the latter after its efforts to make the annual celebration a success. Nothing could be attempted on a pretentious scale this year because the fund available was so meagre. The committee was handicapped from the beginning, but co-operative public effort and the enthusiasm which prevails for the May 24th celebration made of the amusements planned ones that were enjoyed. The lesson to be derived from the crowds which attended the different events on the programme prepared for Victoria Day, coupled with the fact that the Celebration Committee is able to show a substantial balance, is that the commemoration of the anniversary must be perpetuated, and on a scale satisfactory to the citizens.

The people understand that the present year is an exceptional one, inasmuch as so great and worthy effort is being concentrated on making the Diamond Jubilee celebration in connection with Confederation an outstanding event here as well as throughout Canada. What they lacked in funds to celebrate Victoria Day they made up for in popular interest, and by their willingness to attend those ceremonies where there was an admission price. From these factors of a lean year in the commemoration of a most popular anniversary can be gathered the necessity of planning further ahead in future years, and making the necessary arrangements to provide the money for adequate celebration purposes. The Celebration Committee now has the nucleus of a fund to insure next Victoria Day being commemorated in the manner in which it should be. Its popularity, under adverse circumstances, has been demonstrated effectively and that should persuade everyone that Victorians want that holiday to be an outstanding one in their civic history.

Even if the Flag Bill in South Africa is passed it is not to come into operation until approved at a referendum of the electorate. This is an assurance given by General Hertzog. Such a referendum gives promise of being more bitter than any election campaign ever held in South Africa.

It is estimated that as many Mexicans enter the United States yearly as Englishmen, Ulstermen and Scandanavians. There is no quota law against the Mexicans. They are not of the Nordic strain.

The Liberal Government's attitude towards naval defence illustrates how easy it is to dodge responsibility, but, as Sir Josiah Stamp says: "You cannot dodge the consequences of dodging responsibility."

Note and Comment

By R. B. D.

The late Sir John Willison was not an intimate friend of ours—one grand luminaries of the Fourth Estate do not, as a rule, associate very intimately with the mere rush lights of the profession—but we happened to be connected with The Toronto Globe in a very humble capacity when the then Mr. Willison joined the staff of that paper, and he always called upon us and chatted about the old times and the old boys when he visited Victoria. We had such a talk a year or two ago. Sir John appeared to be in robust health then, and little did we think that we should never look upon his face again.

* * *

Mr. John Cameron was the editor-in-chief of The Toronto Globe at the time Mr. Willison joined the reportorial staff of the paper. Mr. Cameron was a good and a conscientious man, but he was not a great newspaper man. After the death of Hon. George Brown, who was shot in his office by a man named Bennett, a discharged employee (we were in the office of the paper on the day of the tragedy), and the retirement of Mr. Gordon Brown, brother of Hon. George Brown, from the editorship, the once powerful newspaper began to fall from its high estate.

* * *

Mr. Cameron was brought from London, Ontario, to increase the circulation and restore the prestige of The Globe and place it upon a paying basis. He did not do any of the things he was expected to do. He reduced the size of the paper and the cost of publishing it; its circulation did not increase and its prestige continued to decrease. But there is one thing to the credit of Mr. Cameron as a newspaper man. He had not the capacity to restore The Globe to the position it occupied as a newspaper in the days of the Browns, but he brought Mr. Willison with him when he came to Toronto, his protege succeeded him in the editorship of the paper, and did what he could not do.

* * *

When Mr. Willison was called to the editorial chair he proceeded immediately to undo everything Mr. Cameron had done. He increased the size of the paper. He possessed the advantage of a practical knowledge of the newspaper business, and he improved the typographical appearance of the paper. He was a diligent student of the history of journalism in America. The last time we met our conversation turned to the fame of The New York Sun under the editorship of Dana. The Sun exemplified completely his idea of what a newspaper should be. Typographically it was as nearly perfect as any pewspaper ever is likely to be. Its editorials were excellently written, were never too long, and dealt with subjects the average editor would describe as "common," but subjects of supreme interest nevertheless to the average reader. Charles A. Dana, a man of eminent literary attainments, was the editor of the Sun. Amos Cummins, an accomplished "all round" journalist and a practical printer, was Dana's first lieutenant. The combination produced the best newspaper as to contents and appearance that ever has been printed in America, probably the best newspaper in every respect that ever has been printed in any part of the world.

* * *

The New York Sun, therefore, we assume, was Willison's model when he was called to the editorial chair of The Globe. Within a few years of his promotion from the position of news editor to the post of chief editor, the prestige of paper had been completely restored. The new editor gathered around him a staff of able editorial writers and skilled reporters. And when finally he was forced out of his high office by political circumstances The Globe was in every respect the leading newspaper of Canada.

* * *

Mr. Robert Houston, another of the veteran journalists of Canada, and a brother of Mr. William Houston, M.A., for a number of years editor-in-chief of The Globe, has been connected with The Colonist and other newspapers of British Columbia for many years. Mr. Robert Houston is at the present time enjoying a visit to Toronto, and we had a long conversation with him before he left for the East. In the course of that conversation Sir John Willison was mentioned among a number of other journalistic friends of the olden times.

* * *

Mr. Houston was associated with Sir John Willison on the staff of The Globe for several years, and told us he intended to call upon him. We had read in the newspapers of the illness of Sir John, but had not dreamt that even while we talked death was knocking at the door of the sick chamber in which he lay. Instead of meeting and talking with his old friend and associate, Mr. Houston will probably arrive in Toronto in time to pay a last melancholy tribute of respect to the memory of the greatest newspaper man and the most accomplished essayist and historian Canada ever has produced.

* * *

On the day before he left, Mr. Houston, who, like all journalists, is an extremely modest man, told us something that probably he had never mentioned to anyone else in the world. He referred, in a casual sort of a way, to the fact that when he was telegraph editor of The Globe the important position of news editor became vacant. As the first in line for promotion to the higher post he was consulted on the matter and recommended that the position should be given to Willison, who was at the time a contributor of special articles to the paper under the nom de plume of "Observer." This disinterested suggestion was adopted, and Mr. Willison stepped upon the first rung of the ladder of fame.

DOGS AT THE POUND

Sir,—A short time ago I made an appeal through your columns on behalf of the stray dogs in the City Pound, which, if not taken away and given homes, would have to be destroyed. I am very pleased to state that a number of very kind-hearted people went to the pound on learning of the presence of dogs there, and several were given good homes. I again make an urgent appeal to the citizens who are fond of dogs, and I feel sure their number is legion, to go down to the pound at this time and claim some of the poor dumb creatures who make such an urgent claim on our sympathy, and who repay a thousandfold in fidelity and affection for the care bestowed upon them. To those residing in the country particularly I appeal at this time, for a good watch-dog is an absolute necessity there, to say nothing of the loving companionship of a good and faithful dog, the true friend of man.

"I've never known a dog to show
Half-way devotion to his friend
To seek a kinder man to know
Or richer; but unto the end,
The humblest dog I ever knew
Was, to the man who loved him, true.

"The dog is listed with the dumb;
No voice has he to speak his creed.
His messages to humans come
By faithful conduct and by deed.
He shows, as seldom mortals do,
A high regard for being true.

"I've never known a dog to fake
Affection for a present gain,
A false display of love to make
Some little favor to attain.
I've never known a Prince or Spot
That seemed to be what he was not."

Trusting that this appeal will meet with an instant response, and that the dogs imprisoned there will be made happy in homes where they will be treated kindly.

TENT CATERPILLARS

Sir,—Many remember the ravages of this pest six years ago, but probably few know that next year completes the seven-year cycle in the life history of these insects and no doubt identical conditions will prevail.

It needs no mention that in the residential districts there are more than ever of the tents to be seen, and it seems strange indeed that some concerted action is not taken to destroy them at the present and only possible stage of their existence.

Any action to this end must be taken immediately.

THE MUSICIANS' UNION

Sir,—A letter appears in last Sunday's Colonist over the signature of John Day in support of Dr. Davies in his controversy with the Musicians' Union. I am patiently waiting to hear from another well known citizen who also loves to take public issue with our organization and when he puts in an appearance it will enable me to give the signal for the striking up of that well-known ballad, "Hail! Hail! the Gang's All Here." As the erratic trend of Mr. Day's thoughts on all matters of an argumentative nature is so well known to the citizens of this city I would not have deigned to answer his letter at all if it were not for the fact that he has held me up as the horrible example of a man holding a card in two unions at the same time. Like our reverend critic he makes the fatal mistake of breaking his pick, as it were, right at the start by making misstatements, as I never held more than one union card, and that is in the Musicians' Union.

Furthermore, I defy him to prove that I ever did any musician, who entirely depended on music for a living and was competent on the instrument that I play, out of a job. The renumeration I am at present receiving or expect to receive in the future from my musical endeavors is so small as to be almost negligible, so why worry about me personally.

Listening to our critics one might well imagine that the city has for some years been overrun with starving and indigent musicians. Mr. Day does not like our laws. Might I suggest to him that he attend the next National Convention of our parent body, which is composed of delegates from all parts of Canada and the United States, the big majority of whom earn their living by music. The legislation they enact guides us as to what we can or cannot do. As they seem to be satisfied to rub shoulders with these terrible two-job men no doubt Mr. Day will be able to convince them that they are all out of step but himself and he can then turn his attention to the A.F. of L., the largest organization of its kind in the world, and take it to task for not keeping more respectable company, seeing that our national body is a member of that organization. Wonder of wonders; Mr. Day sets himself up as the mouthpiece of organized labor in this city as to what it thinks of the musicians in their stand. Since when did Mr. Day make his peace with that body? The last I heard of his connection with it was that he was very much in disgrace with his local and I do know that as for the Trades and Labor Council, of which I was president for a number of years and am still a delegate, that he is very very much persona non grata with that institution and would be about as welcome there as the smallpox.

Now sir, I feel sure your readers must be heartily sick by this time of this controversy, because, after all, in spite of what these would be uplifters say or think, the Musicians' Union will continue to function in the even tenor of its way in the future as in the past.

S. G. PEELE,
President Musicians' Union.

GOOD WILL URGED ON ANGLO-SAXONS

DR. BAKER, OF SEATTLE, ADVOCATES UNION OF FEELING

Local Round Table Votes Fifty Dollars to Excavation Fund

A better understanding between the members of the Anglo-Saxon people under the British flag and in the United States was given expression to as one of the most important matters that could occuy the attention of the peoples of these nations, by Dr. Baker, of Seattle, at a dinner meeting of Ye Knights of the Round Table, in the Empress Hotel, last evening.

The subject came up on a motion which was suggested by Mr. W. T. Straith, that the Table vote a sum towards the Caerleon fund, which is being devoted to the purpose of excavating at the site connected with the recorded doings of King Arthur and his knights. Mr. Straith called attention to the fact that the records showed that the Tables of the United States had been very generous in contributions as compared with the Canadian ones.

After discussion the local Table made a vote of $50 towards this fund.

Dr. Baker, in this connection, while not attempting to suggest what the local Table should do, said that in Seattle it was regarded as not simply an excavation. It was looked upon from the standpoint of the international relations. The Seattle knights felt that it was something that came only once in a lifetime and had an important part in drawing the British and American people together.

It was, he said, regarded as a movement that supported the very foundations of the organization. Just at this particular time in the history of the world he felt that anything that would have the result of drawing the two nations together was one of the very first importance. None could tell what was before them, and the best of understanding between the various Anglo-Saxon nations was of the first importance.

Dr. Baker felt that this international goodwill was of real importance in conjection with the movement that the Round Table had in view.

EARLY HISTORY OF ISLAND REVIEWED

Mr. Aubrey Kent Urges People When Pessimistic to Recall Great Progress Made in Last Eighty-Five Years

A review of the early history of Vancouver Island was given yesterday by Gyro Aubrey Kent, in addressing the Victoria Gyro Club at its weekly luncheon session in the Chamber of Commerce Cafe, with President Archie Wills in the chair.

Mr. Kent told the clubmen that 439 years ago Drake sailed as far north as the forty-eight degrees of latitude, and 353 years ago Juan de Fuca discovered and named the straits on which Victoria is situated. Alaska was discovered 186 years ago by Behring for Russia. Later followed the voyages of Captain Cook, who had with him a young midshipman, George Vancouver.

The speaker stated that there was considerable activity in the sealing industry here 142 years ago, and that James Hannah traded some souvenirs for $20,000 worth of skins from the natives. The seal hunters made Nootka their base, he said.

The visit of Captain George Vancouver to this Island, how he took possession of it from Quadra, and of his voyage around the Island, was told by Mr. Kent, who also gave an account of the arrival of Alexander Mackenzie at Bella Coola in 1793, the establishment of the first Hudson's Bay forts, and the creation of Fort Camosun here eighty-five years ago by Sir James Douglas.

"When some people get pessimistic and disappointed in conditions here, they should look back eighty-five years and consider the change that has come over this entire coast, the cities which have sprung up out of the forests, and the development and progress that has been achieved," Mr. Kent declared. "We have made wonderful advances in the past, and should look forward to the future with confidence and optimism."

Mr. Cliff Begley, a former Victoria Gyro, was given a warm welcome when introduced to the gathering.

Enjoyable pianoforte selections were played by Mr. Leonard Acres. Gyro Bill Hudson led the clubmen in community singing.

The Rhyming Optimist

By Aling Michaelis

We wonder at them, looking back through years and seeking thus to pierce the mists of time, as one who lifts a heavy veil and peers into the strangeness of an alien clime. We glimpse them dimly on their primal heights and note the majesty with which they move; what were their fears, their ardors, their delights, what were their joys of life, their dreams of love? We wonder at them, they who dwelt of old upon the planet we inhabit now, those ancients; and with ruthless hands and bold invade their tombs, brave death's most awful vow. And yet we need not search afar to learn their deeds and dreams, their purpose and their pain, for we with all their old desires burn; in us their loves and hates revive again.

CADETS AT BOYS' CENTRAL INSPECTED

Fine Showing Made by Lads Before Captain J. M. Cumming During Drill Yesterday

The Cadets of the Boys Central School, 140 strong, were inspected on Monday afternoon by the district inspector of Cadet Services, Captain J. M. Cumming. With him at the saluting base were Dr. D. Donald, school medical officer, Captain Ian St. Clair and Captain T. R. Wheadon, who is responsible for cadet instructions at the Central School.

The inspection was divided into four sections: platoon marching and field movements, physical exercises, first aid demonstration, and signalling from established stations.

The marching in column and in line of the boys was worthy of mention. Captain Roy Gaunt handled the company in quite an expert manner and with Captain and Adjutant L. Bapty and Sergeant-Major J. Caddell, was largely responsible for the excellent showing.

The military bearing of the cadets on parade is deserving of much praise and must have been very gratifying to those responsible for the instruction.

The physical training brought out some very clever work, the boys having to exercise not only their physical, but also their mental powers.

The first aid and signalling work was creditably carried out. The cadet inspector expressed his delight at the excellent showing that the boys made.

V.I.A.A. TO RESUME SPORT OPERATIONS

Club Will Launch Forth on an Ambitious Programme This Season—Elect Officers

The Vancouver Island Athletic Association will be revived and will once again take a leading place in local athletics.

A meeting was held yesterday to consider ways and means of putting the association on its feet again. The V.I.A.A. commenced operations in 1914 and took part in many leading sport events.

George I. Warren made various suggestions to stimulate public interest. W. H. Davies stated that the association would be particularly interested in water sports and amateur boxing. A committee was formed to interview officials of the J.B.A.A. in regard to holding periodical boxing tournaments.

It was decided at the meeting to write to various Pacific Coast cities to find out about swimming galas and other club sports held in indoor pools. It is likely that the V.I.A.A. will endeavor to secure a concession at the Crystal Garden.

Officers elected were: President, W. H. Mearns; financial secretary, W. H. Davies; recording secretary, Frank M. Day. George I. Warren will act as chairman of the executive committee to be formed in the near future.

Tar Dust Poisons Trees

It is only our trees that we poison in Paris, writes the correspondent of The London Observer. It appears to have been discovered that it is the tarring of the surfaces of the roads and wood pavements that is the cause of this poisoning, and that it is the tar dust which blows off these roads that does the mischief. As horse chestnuts appear to be peculiarly susceptible to this attack, the chestnut blossoms along the sides of the chief Paris avenues are likely to become rarer and rarer.

ROUND TABLE TO ASSIST STUDENT

FUND WILL BE DEVOTED TO AIDING VICTORIA COLLEGE PUPIL

Contribution From Service Club Will Mark Diamond Jubilee

"The Round Table Diamond Jubilee Scholarship Fund," to consist of $100 contributed by Ye Knights of the Round Table has been authorized, to assist a deserving student of the Victoria College towards completing a University education. This action was taken by the Table at its meeting last evening, which was the last one to be held until next September, when the new season of dinner meetings will be commenced.

This vote to create a scholarship was discussed by the local Table in connection with the proposition of assisting in the Diamond Jubilee celebration. The opinion was expressed that rather than spend the sum upon a float that would last only for a few hours, that a better contribution to mark the great event in Canadian history would be the providing of this fund, which was suggested by Mr. Percy Elliott, and which would serve a worthy and lasting purpose.

MR. T. THOMPSON PASSES SUDDENLY

Pioneer in Grain Trade Dies in Victoria at Advanced Age

One of the best-known grain men in Western Canada passed away on Sunday at his residence, 448 Chester Street, when Mr. Thomas Thompson, head of the firm of Thompson, Sons & Company, and one of the original members of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange, died suddenly.

Mr. Thompson, who was in his seventy-seventh year, was a native of Scotland, and was identified with the grain business in Brandon and Winnipeg for many years before he retired to pass the balance of his life in Victoria. During his residence on the Prairies he was widely known, his business connection with grain exporting dating back to about 1885.

Hon. T. D. Pattullo Answers Remarks of Mr. J. B. Tyrrell on Climatic Conditions in North

An article in the Sunday issue of The Colonist, entitled "The Other Canada," was the subject of reference yesterday by Hon. T. D. Pattullo. This article refers to a statement reported to have been made by Mr. J. B. Tyrrell, mining engineer. Mr. Tyrrell is reported as having made the following statement: "My years in the Klondike were a great pleasure, and the Hudson Bay country is much the same. It is all much more pleasant than a district like Queen Charlotte Islands or Prince Rupert, where the salmon fisheries are, with their excessive rain and fog."

Mr. Pattullo says: "The article 'The Other Canada' is designed to show what a wonderful opportunity there exists in the far northern clime, and Mr. Tyrrell is reported as supporting this view. I am well acquainted with Mr. Tyrrell, who is a most estimable gentleman and one of the outstanding engineers of the continent, and there is no doubt that one can get great enjoyment living in an Arctic climate. But Mr. Tyrrell, if correctly reported, makes the mistake of endeavoring to establish one set of circumstances by leaving a wrong inference in connection with another set.

LONG RESIDENCE IN NORTH

"I was in the Klondike longer than Mr. Tyrrell, and also lived for years in Prince Rupert, and have visited the Queen Charlotte Islands many times during the past fifteen years, so that I know both the Klondike and the Prince Rupert district. Mr. Tyrrell never lived in the Prince Rupert district, and can only speak of it on information conveyed to him.

"There is no doubt that the Klondike has a wonderful climate. There are really just two seasons—Winter and Summer. On first going to the Yukon in 1897, myself and associates bought personal outfits to make the trip. I took along with me a complete Summer outfit, including a white duck suit, much to the amusement of my associates, who confined themselves to heavy woollens and big, coarse mackinaws. The temperature the following Summer reached 93 in the shade. Curiously enough, the ground one foot below the surface, even with this temperature, was solidly frozen. The reason was that the super-surface acted like sawdust on ice. As soon as this super-surface was removed the ground thawed for several feet, and the rich alluvial soil, the warm weather and long daylight produced a very rapid growth. No finer vegetables in the world can be grown than in these northern climes, as I demonstrated in my own garden in Dawson. After Dawson became a more settled community and families were brought in, the Twenty-fourth of May was always the signal for the women and children to come out in white Summer clothes, in spite of the fact that the ice had only gone out of the river a week or ten days previously. The Winter climate is looked upon as severe, but apart from about forty days in the year, when the thermometer stands at from forty to sixty below zero, the Winter climate is delightful. At forty to sixty below zero people travel as little as possible.

FOGS IN SOUTH ALSO

"I agree with Mr. Tyrrell that one can live in a northern clime with great comfort and pleasure. Where Mr. Tyrrell makes his mistake is in the inference he leaves with regard to the climate of the Queen Charlotte Islands and Prince Rupert. Speaking of fog, I lived in Prince Rupert for years and have never seen anything like as much fog in that district as I have seen in the delightful climates of Vancouver and Victoria. As far as rain is concerned, the precipitation is considerably heavier than in Vancouver and very much heavier than in Victoria, but in considerable measure the larger annual rainfall is due to heavier precipitation during the time of the fall, rather than to the duration of the fall. Because of the exceptionally heavy precipitation and the storms occurring at intervals, an impression has been given of the climate of the country that is not justified. The climate is temperate and exceedingly agreeable.

"The Queen Charlotte Islands are the western outpost of the Dominion of Canada. They have great variety of resource and a delightful climate. Development is gradually going ahead and, with the general increase of the population in Canada and British Columbia, the Islands will become more accessible by more frequent transportation service and will be the home of thousands of happy and contented people."

ZONING BY-LAW FINALLY PASSED

Building Area in Group One District Increased Five Per Cent—Side Yards Reduced

Following further revision at last night's meeting of the City Council, the zoning by-law was passed for the third and last time and is now effective. Any building permits taken out at the city hall in future will have to conform to this by-law.

Among the more important revisions to be made was that of the clause wherein the area for building was increased from twenty-five per cent of the lot to thirty per cent, and for corner lots from thirty per cent to thirty-five per cent. On fifty-foot lots the side yard will not be less than five feet on each side and the total width of both side yards will not be less than thirteen feet. This reduces the width a little over the regulation suggested.

The question arose, during the final reading of this by-law, what the provision would be for a building on a corner lot. It was explained that the house would have to be set back twenty-five feet from which ever street it faced, while the side yard facing the other street would conform to the by-law just as if no street had been there at all. This would give, at the least, a five-foot yard in the Group One area.

It was suggested that all corner lots reverted to the city be set aside for boulevard purposes.

FIELD SPORTS ATTRACT MANY

CLAYOQUOT CELEBRATES WITH FULL PROGRAMME—EXHIBITION OF SCHOOL WORK

Day Ends With Bonfire on Beach and Grand Ball in Up-Island Hotel

TOFINO, May 25. (By Mail)—The annual field sports were held at Clayoquot on May 24, but owing to the extensive programme the aquatic sports were postponed until June 4, when they will be held at Tofino. There was a great assemblage of residents from up and down the coast and early in the day there was a big crowd on the beach.

The athletic games began early in the forenoon and were continued until late in the evening, when a huge bonfire was lighted on the beach, which cast a ruddy glow over the deserted scene of activities until far into the night.

Prizes were awarded for the following events: Hundred yards dash, fifty yards dash, one-mile relay race, obstacle race, sack race for men, sack race for ladies, fat man's race, ladies' hundred yards race, Japanese ladies' hundred yards race, three-legged race, needle-threading race, high running jump, high standing jump, broad running jump, broad standing jump, hop, step and jump, pole vaulting, Japanese fishing gear race, wrestling match, tug-of-war, biscuit-eating contest, boys' three-legged potato race, girls' three-legged potato race.

THE FEATURE RACE

The men's hundred yards dash was an event of especial interest, as Mr. Walter T. Dawley, of Victoria, had donated a magnificent silver cup as a first prize. There were many entries, and the race was keenly contested, the winner being a locally celebrated Indian runner from Ahousat, named Edwards.

Another exceedingly interesting and instructive feature of the day was the splendid exhibition of school work held at the schoolhouse, which was visited and highly appreciated by hundreds of the holiday makers. Here they saw exquisitely carved and finished specimens of woodcraft, which had been executed by the deft fingers of the Japanese children. There were fancy shelves, ornamental inkstands, matchholders, boats, and an endless variety of other ingenious and useful articles, including plaster of paris models illustrating the topography of our province, showing its mountains, rivers, lakes and islands. There were also many dainty cardboard models of baskets, trays and other pretty designs that were genuine works of art.

APPETIZING COOKERY

The greatest interest was manifested in the cookery department, where there was an appetizing display of pies, cakes, bread, biscuits and other delectable titbits, the excellence of which spoke volumes for the versatility of their teacher, Mr. Stanley Flitcroft, who was warmly congratulated many times during the day for the wonderful work that he is accomplishing among the Japanese children, of whom his school is almost wholly composed.

Their exhibition of paintings and penmanship was also on a par with the products of their manual training.

The sports committee was composed of Mr. Clarence Dawley, president; Mr. Stanley Flitcroft, secretary-treasurer; Mr. Stanley Grant, Mr. N. G. Thomas and Mr. J. P. Cooper, and great credit is to be accorded to them for the efficient manner in which the programme for the day has been carried out to a successful issue.

A grand ball was given in the evening at the Clayoquot Hotel, where the music was rendered by a local orchestra led by Mrs. Whitaker on the piano.

AN EXCITING BOOK

At a friend's house a certain author found himself in company with a youth with whom he experienced some difficulty in finding a suitable topic of conversation. At last he came to books.

"Have you read any good books lately?" he asked.

"Yes," was the answer. "I've just been reading a splendid book."

Mrs. Dayman Gives Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the Credit

Colborne, Ontario.—"When I was first married I was very thin and weak. The doctor said I was weak and would never be able to have a child, but I did, and from the time my baby came I suffered all the time and doctored and took medicine. Life became a burden, and doctors said an operation could help me, but my husband was opposed to that. I had seen Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine advertised, so I told my husband that I thought I would try it, that I might get some relief. I had not taken one bottle when I could feel it helping me. I took five bottles and had better health. Now I have three girls and a boy and have done my work up to confinement. I am now at the Change of Life and owe my good health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I take a bottle when I think I need it." —Mrs. SUSAN DAYMAN, R. R. No. 5, Colborne, Ontario.

City Hall Activities in Brief

Alderman J. Harvey, Alderman P. R. Brown, and Messrs. James Foreman, M. W. Graham and Christian Sivertz were elected to the Royal Jubilee Hospital Board at last night's meeting of the City Council. All these members had just completed their term and were re-elected unanimously.

The City Fire Department responded to twenty-nine fire alarms during the month of April, according to the Fire Chief's report to the Council through Fire Warden Alderman Mara last night. Loss of contents amounted to $29, while loss to buildings amounted to $489. There were 162 drills, 976 burning permits issued, 555 buildings inspected, seventeen prevention notices issued and one police court conviction.

In answer to a communication from the automobile group of the Chamber of Commerce, in which disapproval was expressed because the city gave an $800 electrical supply contract to the Northern Electric Company, of Vancouver, Alderman William Marchant pointed out that this company, while not a taxpayer, did $100,000 worth of business annually in the City of Victoria by purchasing lumber. The Northern Electric offered to place the order with E. G. Prior and Company, but that firm refused to handle it.

Tenders are to be called shortly by the City Building Inspector for an addition to the Isolation Hospital. Alderman Litchfield explained at last night's meeting of the City Council that $1,500 had been included in the estimates for this purpose. The room will adjoin the scarlet fever ward and will be used for convalescents.

Miss Wormald, of 1115 Collinson Street, was appointed playground inspector at Beacon Hill Park for the months of July and August. Miss Dyson, of 425 Walton Street, was appointed playground supervisor at Central Park.

Owing to the fact that Goodacre Bridge, in Beacon Hill Park, is not capable of withstanding great weight, the Council last night decided to permit no trucks or sightseeing cars on the bridge. All other vehicles must cross the bridge at four miles per hour.

Mr. J. M. Miller was appointed bandmaster of the Municipal Band last night, with instruction to select the best musicians obtainable for the Sunday concerts in Beacon Hill Park, commencing on June 5. The proposal to engage the Fifth Regiment, the Sixteenth Scottish and City Temple Bands was voted down.

Tenders will be called for the new piling required at the garbage wharf. Extensive repairs are to be carried out.

City Solicitor H. S. Pringle will prepare a bylaw providing safety zones in downtown areas. He will confer with the City Engineer and police in connection with this matter.

A by-law is to be prepared for the collection of a road tax from all persons over twenty-one years of age. No formal notice will be deemed necessary for the collection of this tax.

A grant of $100 was made to the Canadian Girl Guides of Victoria for the purpose of entertaining visitors at their camp, to be held from July 14 to July 21.

Sons of Canada Invited to Reception

Members of Assembly No. 1, Native Sons of Canada, are requested to be present tonight at the Sons of Canada Hall to meet delegates to the Canadian Daughters' convention. There will be a reception by the Mayor, followed by a musical programme, refreshments and an informal dance.

Boys' Naval Brigade Is Well Received in Toronto

By P. A. RAYNER

Since my last letter we have traveled a considerable distance. We stayed in Winnipeg two days, but did not play any engagements. The first day was very miserable, as it rained all day. The weather improved the next day and we were taken for a sight-seeing trip by the Army and Navy Veterans' Association.

We gave a twenty minutes' concert in the rotunda of the Canadian National Depot, and the Premier of Manitoba, who had just arrived from some point in the Province, came over and welcomed the Band to Manitoba, and wished them every success on their journey. We left Winnipeg that afternoon for Toronto. The journey took thirty-six hours and it was very uninteresting, as the country we traveled through was nearly all flooded.

WELCOMED BY PRESIDENT

We arrived in Toronto on Thursday morning, and were welcomed by Mr. Sam Harris, the Dominion President of the Navy League of Canada. We remained in this city ten days, playing at the Regent Theatre, where a wonderful picture, entitled "The Flag Lieutenant," was shown. On Sunday, May 15, the Navy League took us all to see Niagara Falls. We went in two sightseeing cars. It was a lovely drive, especially at this time of the year, as we passed through the wonderful blossom country. We stayed at the Falls two hours and returned to Toronto in time to attend a church parade at St. Paul's Church, where Canon Cody preached a very impressive sermon, after which the Band played a few appropriate selections. On the Wednesday evening the Band were the guests of the Masons, who gave the boys a wonderful time.

Last Sunday, our final day in the city, brought our visit to a final success, as we marched in the big Garrison Parade. It was estimated there were over 4,000 men in the march past. The Governor-General took the salute, and when we came to the base, it was noticed that he was most interested at seeing us again.

NOT TOO BRASSY

The Band received great praise in the Toronto press. The Telegram especially remarking that "to the surprise of the musical critic the Band did not render its programme in the brassy way that is generally expected from a brass band and more particularly a boys' band, but that the tone was so excellent that the musical director, Mr. Arthur Hodgkins, deserved the greatest praise for the manner in which he has taught these boys to play their different parts, and trained them to understand the importance of not over blowing."

The Band left Sunday evening for Ottawa.

Brilliant Colors for Summer

Like Painted Butterflies Are New Parasols to Be Carried With Summer Frocks

This year crepe de Chine is the favorite silk, and frocks of every kind are made of it, those for hot weather being pleated, tucked and draped in all combinations of colors and small patterns, says an article in The London Times.

Navy and beige and red and beige spotted designs run the tiny floral and jumbled patterns very close, and beige as a background seems to be preferred to white; it blends better with hats and accessories. At the moment many patterned materials are worn with plain crepella or frisca coats but presently they will be seen without such accessories, and then the bolero fashions and the many new ideas designed to give movement will be more apparent. There never was a season when there were so many odd scarf ends, draperies and floating pieces, from long jabots to semi-capes set in below the shoulders and ending at the waist. Short coats with light frocks include embroidered silk coatees and georgette chiffon coatees.

Colors are very varied, the pastel colors are used with one another in sports clothes and the like, and also in the crepe de Chines and chiffons and georgettes that will be worn in warm weather.

BLUES OF EVERY SHADE

Many shades of blue—dark and light navy, pervenche and egg blue; many shades of green—parrokeet, lettuce, jade and chartreuse; and many shades of yellow—primrose, mimosa and daffodil, are being chosen for light frocks, and they are blended with others. Grey is slowly coming back and is sometimes allied with pastel—mauves, pinks and blues, and even yellow—for filmy frocks. The old difficulty of matching grey remains, but the coolness and refinement which it suggests should be in its favor. Bordered materials are not so frequent as patterned materials. There is a number of streaky designs and mixed colorings like patterns seen under a kaleidoscope, and some Cubist squares and triangular cubes in printed silks. Marocains in shaded spotted designs are interesting, but on the whole it is a season of small-patterned materials. Some hot-looking bright red dresses have appeared, but they are not likely to be much approved.

Parasols are much simpler than of old, and suit the less elaborate dressing of the day. Umbrellas are now made of many colored proofed gros-grain and glace silks, and the handles are made of ramshorn or lizard skin or shagreen, or are frivously carved as ivory birds and beasts. There are many crook handles.

SUNSHADES ARE BRILLIANT

Painted sunshades are likely to be popular. All kinds of borders and decorations are painted on gros-grain, and a special pattern can be made to match a frock. Among the more elaborate parasols are some of lace and georgette made with petals; one made of beige georgette and biscuit lace would go with many frocks. Others are of black and white georgette; the black forms the cover, and is ornamented with some white device and lined with white; others in black have a colored georgette flower, while the handle and ferrule are of the same color. Some of the painted ones have a painted background and a flower applied to it. On simple net designs narrow gold bands are let in. On georgette parasols are formal frills of silk. For young girls there are pretty parasols of pale blue and pale primrose georgette or printed ninon, and of hemstitched gros-grain with painted borders. The liking for brown and white and black and white calfskin has caused a few parasols to be made of velvet stamped to imitate these skins; the handles are made to match.

For ordinary country use there are painted raffia and crocheted raffia parasols. Stripes are in favor, and many silk and cotton and alpaca parasols are brilliantly striped. Garden parasols of tussore are lined with rainbow stripes and with chintz. Though there is variety, there is less elaboration, and there are fewer freak parasols of strange decoration and unusual shape. In fact, parasols are meant to look well both open and shut, and the linings are intended to give a pleasant glow. For this reason parrokeet green should be avoided.

Girls' Council Picnic

The last meeting for the season of the Victoria Girls' Council took the form of a picnic for all Canadian Girls in Training and their leaders, held on Saturday at the Willows Beach. In the afternoon games and sports were enjoyed by all.

At 6 o'clock about a hundred girls sat down to supper, which was eaten round a large bonfire on the beach. After supper, Miss Adam led the girls in a lively sing-song. The devotional period was well taken by two of the girls. The business period being over, the president introduced Mr. Pearce, of the Dominion Astronomical Observatory, who gave a very interesting and instructive talk on the stars, telling several old Greek legends about the different groups of stars.

During the evening Mrs. Hammond, president of the Girls' Work Board, gave the announcement for camp, which is to be held at Beaver Lake from July 25 to August 3, the cost to be $8.50. The picnic was closed by the singing of "Taps."

Health and Diet Advice

By DR. FRANK McCOY

RINGWORMS

Correspondents have been writing in recently asking about the cure of ringworm. It seems that there is a real epidemic of this trouble in many parts of the North American continent. The epidemic has become so great in some cities that children affected with ringworm are not allowed to come to school.

There is no question but what ringworm is contagious and is caused by a small micro-organism which burrows down in the skin, making a circular path of inflammation in the form of a ring. As these marks appear on the body they can be easily cured by painting them with a solution of silver nitrate, iodine, or mercurochrome.

The trouble is that as soon as one is cured, another ringworm is liable to appear some other place. The reason for this is that the only soil in which ringworms can grow is a body suffering from acidosis. Children who are fed on cereals with sugar, or bread and jam, are liable to develop such an acidosis.

Only those children who have been fed on improper food combinations will develop ringworm. In rare cases, some child in perfect health who comes in close physical contact with another child suffering from ringworm may be able to also contract a single ringworm. But with a child whose blood is in perfect condition, the ringworm will quickly disappear and no more will develop.

An epidemic can be stopped in two or three days if the parents can be taught to feed their children properly so as to avoid hyper-acidity of the stomach and the consequent systemic acidosis.

School children are often fed a eereal with sugar at breakfast, and then, at lunch, have an apple or a sandwich. At noon—more sandwiches with ice cream or malted milk. Then, after school, in the afternoon, some more fruit or lunch and when dinnertimes comes, they, of course, do not enjoy simple, wholesome food. As the stomach has labored so hard all day with incompatible mixtures, do not be surprised that the child does not seem eager for spinach and the valuable green vegetables which are so necessary. There is no excuse for school children eating more than three meals a day, and no lunches should be given between times.

If a ringworm does appear, treat it as I have advised and start dieting at once to correct the systemic acidosis.

GAME OF YUKON IMPORTANT ASSET

Mr. John C. Newmarch Praises the North—Impromptu Speeches at Round Table

At the closing dinner for this season of Ye Knights of the Round Table last evening, no special speaker was arranged for; instead, a number of impromptu talks were given. Among these one of the most interesting was that given by Mr. John C. Newmarch on the "Big Game of the Yukon." The speaker formerly lived at White Horse and had visited the hunting fields of the north, so that his remarks were very informative.

He said it was estimated that $100,000 a year was spent in the country by big game hunters, which meant much revenue to the country. Mr. Newmarch took pains to disabuse the gathering of the idea that the Yukon was a frozen territory where life was misery. The average Winter temperature, he pointed out, was only about nine degrees below zero, while the Summer season averaged about forty-six degrees.

The greatest hunting grounds were about 125 miles from White Horse. The country was the centre for moose, caribou, mountain sheep and bear. Hunters spent from thirty to sixty days in the field on one hunt.

SPEAKS ON GOLF

Mr. Harry Hodges spoke on the subject of golf which he described as a great game for the elimination of differences. The international possibilities of it were alluded to and he recited good influence that was spread by the playing together of residents of the United States and of this country.

Mr. A. E. Ormond amused the gathering with the recital of a nightmare, with a rude awakening to prosaic things.

Colonel D. Martyn recalled the incidents connected with a fishing expedition making local allusions from time to time.

There was a resolution passed to be sent on to the international body recommending that if any change was to be made in the limits of the districts, that Victoria and Vancouver should be included with the coast cities of the United States rather than with the Prairie cities. It was shown that this would be more convenient in exchange of visits, and would also make for good international feeling between the various Tables along the Coast. Vancouver's opinion on the matter also will be sought.

U.S. BIRD LOVERS COME TO HEAR ENGLISH SKYLARK

That Victoria is an attractive place for bird lovers was illustrated Sunday by the arrival of a distinguished party of ornithologists from the United States, who came to see the birds.

Victoria has one variety of bird that is found nowhere else in the United States or Canada except here. It is the English skylark.

The party which came to see this bird consisted of Mrs. B. Schuler, Miss Kate Holmes, Miss Mae MacLean, Miss Margaret Thyne, Miss Culver, Miss Julia Shourek, Mr. W. Hagenstein, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Pollock, Miss Lyda M. Cox and Miss Kate Thompson.

The party stayed at the Strathcona Hotel.

PRESENTATION MADE

Mrs. L. H. Hardie, provincial president of the King's Daughters, was presented yesterday afternoon by the Victoria district members with a handsome club bag on the eve of her departure for an extended visit in England. The ceremony took place immediately following a business meeting of the King's Daughters, at which the major part of the discussion consisted of reports arising out of the recent provincial convention here. Mrs. James Stewart, district president, made the presentation on behalf of the members, expressing the organization's appreciation of the splendid manner in which Mrs. Hardie had filled office during her long term as provincial head. The ceremony was followed by the serving of tea, Mrs. Playfair and the members of the Speedwell and Ministering Circles being responsible for the arrangements. Mrs. Hardie will sail from Montreal on June 10 on the Ss. Minnedosa.

By Marie Belmont

Cotton and linen are playing a large part in fashions for the warm weather season. Among the most attractive of these are the colorful coats, some hand-blocked linen, others printed cretonne, being shown for Summer wear.

The one shown here is smart in its three-quarter length, and in its use of silver thread stitching, scattered in a light zig-zag pattern over the entire coat. The background is cream, with red and orange and blue in the printed design.

The sports frock worn beneath is pale blue linen

GIANTS WIN AND LOSE

Bill Carrigan's One-Run Record Is Now Reversed

BOSTON, Mass., May 30.—Years ago, when the dye that covered the hose of the Boston American League club was of a much better chemical than it is today, the Red Sox made quite a "rep" in winning their games by one run. Them wuz the good ol' days when there wuz more beans on the plate in the elite Parker-House and helpings of codfish were larger. Years and years ago, as it were.

It was Bill Carrigan who was content to win the games by one run. These days conditions are changed and the Red Sox, instead of winning by one run, have been losing them by the same margin.

Seek to Restore Lacrosse As Premier National Sport

Native Sons of Canada Grand Council Executive Passes Resolution for Dominion Jubilee Celebration Committee

At a meeting of the grand council executive of the Native Sons of Canada, held in Vancouver on Saturday, at which representatives of the Society from five provinces were present, the following resolution was adopted and ordered to be forwarded to the Dominion Jubilee celebration committee at Ottawa:

"Whereas lacrosse as the national game of Canada was officially adopted in the year 1867, when the National Lacrosse Association of Canada was formed, bearing on its banner the inscription 'Our Country and Our Game';

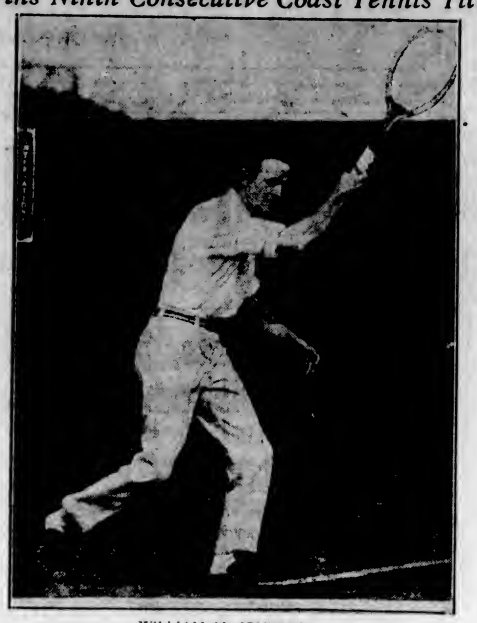

"And whereas this the Diamond Jubilee year of Confederation is also the Diamond Jubilee year of the official adoption of lacrosse as Canada's national game;

"And whereas as the national game of Canada, lacrosse has been, unfortunately, so neglected that while it is still spoken of as our national game, it can scarcely be regarded as such in reality and in practice.

"Be it therefore resolved that in the opinion of the grand council executive of the Native Sons of Canada, some definite action should be taken at this time to stimulate and revive new interest in lacrosse as Canada's national game and that we communicate with the national committee on the celebration of Canada's Diamond Jubilee respectfully requesting that some action be taken by that committee to revive interest in Canada's national game by providing trophies to be competed for yearly by the various lacrosse associations or leagues throughout Canada and for such further action as that committee may deem advisable tending to the encouragement of lacrosse as Canada's national game."

Mr. D. H. Elliott, of Vancouver, secretary of the British Columbia Amateur Lacrosse Association, who was present, informed the meeting that a memorandum on lacrosse had been submitted to the National Jubilee Committee.

(Little Bill) Johnston, former national champion, today won his ninth consecutive Pacific Coast tennis championship, defeating Gerald Stratford, 5-7, 6-3, 6-2, 5-7, 6-1, in the final day of the tournament. Stratford gave Johnston a good run, but the champion's head work told in the end, as his placements weakened his opponent.

Miss Helen Jacobs won again the coast title in the women's singles by defeating Mrs. May Sutton Bundy, 6-3, 6-2, in a match in which Miss Jacobs made but few errors.

The men's special doubles, not a championship event, was won by Johnston and his former national doubles partner, C. J. Griffin. They defeated Stratford and James Davies, 7-5, 7-5, 6-4.

Mrs. Bundy and Mrs. Louise Dudley, both of Santa Monica, won the women's doubles from Mrs. Winifred Ottinger, of San Francisco, and Miss Marian Williams, of Los Angeles, 6-1, 9-7.

Helen Wills Wins Match in Straight Sets

STAMFORD HILL, Eng., May 30.—Miss Helen Wills, California, came back to competitive tennis today in the North London Lawn Tennis championships at the Gypsy Club. She breezed through the first round, eliminating Miss B. H. Holden in straight sets, 6-1, 6-4. While the critics considered her form not too convincing, her errors were perhaps due to experimental play.

Molla B. Mallory and her sister, Mrs. Hals, were other players who defeated their opponents in the first round.

NEW YORK, May 30.—"Babe" Herman Ruth poled out his fourteenth homer of the season here today in the second game of today's double-header against Philadelphia. The circuit clout came in the eleventh with no one on and broke up a perfectly good ball game.

Seven Batsmen Score Over 100 Mark—Sutcliffe Makes 176 for Yorkshire Against Surrey

MEAD CONTRIBUTES 187 FOR HAMPSHIRE

LONDON, May 30.—When stumps were drawn for the day in the cricket match between Yorkshire and Surrey at Leeds today the southerners were in a very dangerous position. With a first innings score of 172 and a second innings effort of 197 for seven wickets, Surrey was only forty-six runs ahead of Yorkshire's first innings of 333, to which Sutcliffe contributed 176. No play took place after tea because of the bad light.

Fine individual performances today were the 187 by Mead for Hampshire, against Gloucester; 108 by Shipman for Leicester against Essex; 110 by Gunn and 101 by Walker for Notts against Warwickshire; 100 by Evans for Kent against Derby, and 105 by Lowrey for the New Zealanders against Sussex.

Outsider Will Cop Derby, Steve Donoghue Declares

Winner of English Classic Six Times, Says Outsider, Will Be Own Mount—Call Boy Grazes Leg, Giving Backers Fright

LONDON, May 30.—The owners of two Derby favorites, and Steve Donoghue, premier Derby jockey, were guests of honor at the customary Derby luncheon of the Press Club of London held today.

Frank Curzon, theatrical magnate, who owns Call Boy, said: "Call Boy is trained to the second. I do not think he will win because it would be too good to be true. He may not suit the Derby course. The horse is fit and well, and we have every confidence in him."

"Sickle is more fit and well than he has ever been," Lord Derby said of his horse. "Never in my wildest days did I suppose Sickle to be as good as San Sovina. I sincerely hope that the best horse wins, and I sincerely hope the best horse will be mine."

Donoghue, who is riding the little fancied Lone Knight, said: "An outsider is going to win this race. That outsider will be myself."

Donoghue has ridden the winner in six Derbies. Lord Derby's reference was to the winner of 1924, San Sovina, the colt that won the Classic for Lord Derby, after Stanley House for more than a century had been unsuccessful in the race founded by his ancestor in 1780.

An incident showing intense interest taken in the Derby occurred today.

As the favorite, Call Boy, owned by Frank Curzon, sportsman and theatrical manager, was being put into the horse box at Newmarket for the journey to Epsom, the horse slipped on the platform and grazed a leg. News of the accident was soon spread over the first pages of the afternoon papers under big headlines, giving Call Boy backers a fright and equally jarring those who had drawn him in the sweepstakes. Later news, saying he had arrived at Epsom showing no trace of lameness, tended to lessen anxiety.

TWENTY-FOUR TO START

EPSOM, May 30.—With the Derby only two days away, a number of alterations in the list of probable starters were affected today. Besides Double Barrel, three others have been withdrawn, Fourth Hand, Kincardine and Curialis. Two others among the 349 nominated in November of 1926, have taken their places among the probable starters. These are R. Cohen's Buckfast and C. Howard's Chichester Cross. The probables now number twenty-four, with Lord Derby's Sickle and Frank Curzon's Call Boy about even favorites.

Triple Tie Created In Senior Ball Loop

Sons of Canada Defeat Eagles 3 to 1 in Fine Game to Put Three Teams on Even Terms—Bill Holman's Homer in First Nets Enough Runs to Down the Feathered Tribe—Lidstone Goes Good

LAST NIGHT'S RESULT

Sons of Canada 3, Eagles 1.

By defeating the Eagles last night, 3-1, Sons of Canada created a triple tie in the race for the senior amateur baseball pennant. Bill Holman, centre fielder, was a big factor in his team's victory when he connected with one of Howe's high balls in the first inning and knocked the pill over the centre field fence, scoring Dunn in front of him. The game was one of the snappiest of the season and was watched by a good crowd.

The second factor that spelt victory for the Sons and defeat for the Eagles was the pitching of Dan Lidstone. Lidstone breezed thirteen, allowed only four hits, and issued one base on balls.

HOWE BUMPS INTO TROUBLE

Howe, who started to do the heaving for the feathered tribe, bumped into his second bag of trouble in as many starts and after being touched for five safeties, which netted the winners two runs, he was yanked at the end of the fourth in favor of Pollard.

Pollard went five innings, allowing only one hit, but clever base running by Bacon, when he stole second and third, in the sixth inning, and was sacrificed home by Cummins, gave the winners their third run.

The Eagles scored their only run in the sixth. Hap Gandy started with a two-bagger to left, went to third on a wild pitch and came home on a single by Nex.

Hap Gandy led the hitters for the night by picking off a double and a single out of four trips to the rubber. He also had a good night at third, handling seven chances without a slip. None of the Canadians managed to get better than one safety. Casanor umpired the game and satisfied the critics.

On Thursday the Eagles and U.C.T. will clash to settle the leadership of the league.

BOROTRA BEATEN BY COUNTRYMAN

Youthful Antoine Gentien Knocks Idol of French Tennis Fans Out of International Tournament

CROWD SHEDS REAL TEARS OVER DEFEAT

ST. CLOUD, France, May 30.—Jean Borotra, idol of French tennis fans, and popularly known in America as the "Bounding Basque," went down to defeat before his youthful countryman, Antoine Gentien, this evening, and real tears were shed by many of the thousands of spectators, who had remained until well after 8 o'clock hoping that their favorite would snatch victory at the end.

Borotra's elimination from the international hard court championship tournament overshadowed William T. Tilden's victory over Louis Raymond, South African champion, which had put the French fans in good humor, for Tilden had lost one set and had a hard time in another of the sets. The score of the Gentien-Borotra match was 6-2, 11-13, 6-0, 6-4.

The Tilden-Raymond score was 5-7, 6-2, 8-6, 6-3.

500-MILE GRIND WON BY YOUTH

George Souders, Twenty-Four-Year-Old Unknown Driver, Cops Indianapolis Auto Race

FLAMING CAR GIVES SPECTATORS THRILL

INDIANAPOLIS, May 30.—George Souders, a shy, unassuming unknown lad from Lafayette, Ind., became somebody in the business of automobile racing today.

Souders, a former student at Perdue University, driving his first major event, won the fifteenth annual 500-mile grind at the Indiana motor speedway before a record-breaking crowd of 145,000 spectators.

This twenty-four-year-old youth, driving the entire distance without relief, and making only two quick stops, piloted his tiny racer, painted a dusty shade of grey, two hundred perilous trips around the bumpy two and one-half mile track in 5:07:33 for an average of 97.54 miles an hour. He had a lead of seven and a half miles when he got the checkered flag as signal of victory.

NETS $30,000

By his victory Souders enriched himself to the extent of about $30,000 cash money. He won $20,000 as first prize and picked up $5,100 in lap prize bonuses, getting $100 every time he led the field each lap. Souders intends to resume his studies in mechanical engineering.

Babe Stapp, driving relief for Wade Morton, was forced into the pits by a slipping clutch after he had only two more laps to go to land second place. This misfortune enabled Earl Devere to grab second place and $10,000 as his reward.

Frank Lockhart, a twenty-three-year-old Los Angeles youth, who came out of the West unknown a year ago to win the 1926 race, was a red-hot favorite to repeat, with Tommy Milton, twice winner of the race, ranking second. Lockhart, driving a tiny white car, sent his mount bouncing over the two and a half mile brick track at a speed of 111 miles an hour.

He knocked off the first fifty miles in the fastest time in the history of the race. The time was 28:03:32, an average of 106.93 miles an hour. Duray was hanging on in second place, with Charles "Dutch" Bauman, of Indianapolis third.

BURSTS INTO FLAMES

The spectators got their first gasp when a car driven by Norman Batten, of Brooklyn, burst into flames in full sight of the thousands in the stands as the leaders were finishing the first fifty miles.

With smoke and blazing gasoline enveloping the speeding car, Batten heroically stuck with the machine. Driving while standing up he gamely brought it to a stop.

Batten was seriously burned about the hands and body. He was rushed to the hospital.

Before the first 100 miles was finished there were three other accidents.

The car driven by Jules Ellingboe, of Memphis, smashed into the retaining wall on the north turn of the track as he was on his sixtieth mile. The machine was wrecked. Ellingboe was reported to have sustained broken legs.

Dave Lewis also hit the north wall when his front axle broke. He escaped injury. Hartz scraped the wall turning into the stretch, but pulled into the pits under his own power.

Lockhart threw a right rear wheel while on his 119th lap, but by remarkable skill escaped injury.

CHANNEL VICTOR NOT TO ENTER SWIM

Derham Decides Not to Compete in $50,000 Race at Toronto—Gets Mixed in Geography

LONDON, May 30.—Norman Leslie Derham, British long-distance swimmer, has decided not to compete in the Lake Ontario swim on Labor Day, from Youngstown, N.Y., to Toronto, says a Southend dispatch to The Westminster Gazette.

Derham, who swam the English Channel last September, almost started for the United States last March with the idea of taking part in the Lake Ontario swim, which he thought was scheduled for May 1, which is the date of Europe's Labor Day. At the last moment he found out that the swim would be held on the first Monday in September, the American Labor Day.

Not only had Derham got the date twisted, but he thought the swim would be from Youngstown, Ohio, to Toronto. He learned, much to his surprise, that his geography might have carried him over Niagara Falls as well as over considerable dry land.

A. V. PRICE WINS UPLANDS CROWN

Succeeds Percy Edmonds as Club Champion by Defeating Fifteen-Year-Old Clarence Brynjolfson 7 and 5

NEW TITLEHOLDER SHOOTS FINE GOLF

Phenomenal mashie work and deadly putting in the first round of the thirty-six hole match for the Uplands Golf Club championship gained A. V. Price a seven-hole lead and spelt disaster for the title aspirations of the fifteen-year-old schoolboy Clarence Brynjolfson, who succumbed 7 and 5. The veteran Price required only twenty-eight strokes to negotiate the eighteen greens and turned in the splendid score of 72, eight better than his opponent.

The defeat of Brynjolfson by the former British Columbia, City and Uplands champion did not come as much of a surprise. Price's experience in match play was too well known, and most golfers gave Brynjolfson only an outside chance to cop the title. His defeat by such a wide margin by the veteran southpaw, however, was by no means a disgrace, as Price was right on top of his form and turned in one of the best rounds he had ever made on the course.

It was Brynjolfson's first experience in a title match play, and he appeared slightly nervous in the first round. This, however, wore off and in the afternoon the boy settled down and shot steady golf, but the lead obtained by his opponent in the morning was too much for him to overcome.

PRICE WINS FIRST THREE

Price started off by winning the first three holes in par four's, while "Skink" required an extra stroke on each of them. The next two were halved, and Brynjolfson cut Price's lead to two by winning the sixth with a four. The seventh was halved, and Brynjolfson gained another at the eighth by shooting a "birdie" three. The ninth was halved in four's, giving Price a one-hole lead at the turn.

Price increased his lead at the tenth with a par four. The eleventh was halved with par three's. Three "birdies" in a row put Price five up. The fifteenth was halved in four's, but Price put his ball dead on the sixteenth for a two to go six holes in the lead. Both shot four's on the seventeenth, but Brynjolfson found trouble on the last hole and took six strokes against Price's five.

Play in the last round was more even. Price had about an inch clear space to get by Brynjolfson's ball for a half on the first green, but his ball clicked into the hole. Price won the twentieth with a four, and the next three were halved. Brynjolfson cut Price's lead to seven by taking the twenty-fourth with a four. He lost the twenty-fifth, but took the next two to start the last nine six down. Brynjolfson gave the gallery a thrill by sinking his approach on the twenty-seventh after he had played his ball short from the bunker.

Price won the twenty-eighth, and halved the next. Brynjolfson shot a "birdie" three to prolong the match at the thirtieth, but Price came through with a four on the next hole to end the match.

THE SCORES

The scores for the morning round were:

Hammond Brings Total Up to 1,000 in O.C. Professional Cricket

SOUTHAMPTON, May 30.—The sensations of the early days of English cricket this year have been the performances of one of the professionals on the Gloucestershire team, Hammond. On Saturday, in a match between his county and Hampshire, he scored 192 and brought his total for the season up to 1,000. This equals the records of W. G. Grace and Tom Hayward, in reaching four figures before the end of May.

Hammond's best work this year was produced in a match between Gloucestershire and Surrey, when he scored a century in each innings.

BATES DEFEATED AT VANCOUVER

Canadian Singles Champion Loses to Youngster of Vancouver Tennis Club—Mainlanders Break Even

AMERICANS WIN AGAINST LOCALS

VANCOUVER, May 30.—Leadley McMaster, of the Vancouver Lawn Tennis Club, this afternoon defeated Wallace Bates, crack Seattle net artist. The score was 6-2, 2-4, 9-7.

This contest was part of the match between Vancouver club and a Seattle contingent. By winning the last doubles match the local club broke even with the invaders at five-all, seven singles and three doubles being played.

It was up to H. Milne and Jack Muir, who were pitted against Bates and Wendy Langlie, to save the day, and they came through handsomely to win 2-6, 7-5, 6-3. McMaster, a youngster, was hardly expected to give Bates, who won the Canadian singles and was one time California state champion, a close battle. After the boy had succeeded in taking the first set 6-2, Bates opened up a hard-hitting attack and quickly ran through for a win in eight games.

McMaster lost the first two games in deciding set and then went on to make it 4-2. Bates then rallied and forced the score to five-all. McMaster took the lead again, but Bates came back to even the count.

Once more the local boy showed in front, this time to stay. He had point set match four times before he placed one out of Bates' reach for the winning point.

Following the match, the visiting players were entertained at dinner at the University Club by the local tennis organization. They left for Seattle on the night boat.

WIN MATCHES HERE

In the matches played at the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club, Sunday, the Seattle players won from the locals by ten matches to three. The visitors annexed seven of the nine singles and three of the four doubles. Large crowds watched the exhibitions.

Although beaten the locals were by no means outclassed, and seven of the thirteen matches went into three sets before they were decided. One of the features of the play was the work of the younger members of the team.

HEAVY TRAVEL IS FORECAST

Passenger Traffic During the Summer and Autumn Will Be of Big Proportions, Says Visiting Railway Man

C.N.R. TICKET CLERKS PLEASED WITH CITY

"Inquiries from prospective travelers are numerous and give indication of heavy passenger traffic during the Summer and Autumn seasons," said Mr. T. E. P. Pringle, general agent, Canadian National Railways, who was here from Montreal on Sunday in charge of a party of twenty-five ticket clerks of the company who are making an educational tour of the Dominion.

"Canadians have been displaying greater interest in their own land," continued Mr. Pringle, "and many are realizing that there is a great deal to be seen in the Dominion, both East and West. Returning travelers have spread the tale of the wonders of the West and have recorded that there are conveniences of trains and hotels not to be surpassed anywhere on this continent. Such resorts as Minaki and Jasper Park now have established reputations. Jasper Park has made a particular appeal, especially through persons of international fame who have visited this wonderful preserve and who have spread the story of its glories.

"All of the National parks are attracting attention and the fact that the Federal and Provincial Governments are doing so much towards fish, game and forest conservation has interested people elsewhere, with the result that many inquiries have come to us from all parts of the Empire, United States and other countries. The fishing opportunities offered in every part of Canada are most alluring and in the heart of every man there always remains the desire to catch a big fellow, with the result that each season finds more fishermen crossing the line to find pleasure in Canadian lakes and streams.

NEW TRAINS

"As further indication of the growing passenger travel, I may point out that this season three new trains are being added to the Canadian National service, one to be known as "The Acadian," will operate between Halifax and Montreal to relieve the present service which must bear heavy demands from Spring to Autumn; one other, "The Confederation," will operate to give a fast and improved service between the East and the Pacific Coast. The name is in honor of the Diamond Jubilee Celebration of the Confederation, which the sleepers used on this train will bear the names of Fathers of Confederation. A third new train is "The Maple Leaf," running from Toronto to Chicago, considerably adding to that service, particularly in view of the fact that it is a direct connection from the "Intercity Limited," the first day train from Montreal to Toronto, and presents a most convenient alternative for the business man from the East to the West through the Chicago gateway."

Mr. Pringle is the head of a group of ticket and passenger agents from the eastern territory who are en tour to learn, at first hand, of the scenic beauties, the resources and the routes of Western Canada. "This is an education tour," said Mr. Pringle, speaking of the party. "It is the object of the passenger traffic organization to maintain men in every office throughout Canada, the United States and Europe, who will possess first-hand knowledge of the Dominion and will be able to direct intending travelers by the most pleasant and convenient route, and also offer information on any necessary subject."

Teh following are members of the party: J. J. Aubin, Quebec; J. Anderson, Hamilton; C. A. Baker, Windsor; W. Coveney, Montreal; J. B. Doren, Peterboro; F. L. Dougan, Moncton; R. A. Gill, Toronto; L. B. Gillis, Sydney; J. F. Goodall, Toronto; T. W. Harris, Boston; O. E. Jenkinsson, Toronto; J. H. Joubert, Montreal; C. H. Ladue, Chicago; J. E. Lefevre, Montreal; J. A. Manor, Ottawa; J. S. McDonald, Montreal; G. E. Noel, Quebec; E. O. Picard, St. Hyacinthe; G. E. Richardson, Toronto; J. E. Roberts, Toronto; W. S. Sweet, Truro; W. A. Trenholm, Toronto; J. T. Whiteford, Montreal.

TO OBSERVATORY

The party was met here by Mr. C. F. Earle, district passenger agent of the C.N.R.; Mr. George I. Warren, publicity commissioner, and Mr. "Barney" Olson, proprietor of the Gray Line Tours. With Mr. Olson himself, at the wheel of his new parlor car de luxe, the "Mt. Prevost," the party proceeded to the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory, where Mr. Hugh Little gave a lecture on the telescope machinery and the work of the Observatory.

Following a visit to Butchart's Gardens, the party crossed to Mill Bay on the ferry, and were driven to Cobble Hill and Cowichan Bay, where they had luncheon at the Cowichan Bay Inn. Returning to the city over the Malahat in the afternoon, the visitors were taken to the Crystal Garden for a swim in the pool.

Before embarking on the midnight boat for Vancouver, members of the party expressed themselves as delighted with the beauties of the city and its environs, and with the hospitality of their hosts.

Master of Givenchy Is Presented With Chief's Headdress

A PICTURESQUE ceremony on Empire Day at the tiny West Coast settlement of Finlay Cove, made Captain A. M. Henderson, master of the Dominion Government Fisheries patrol steamer Givenchy, proud possessor of the headdress of an Indian chieftain.

A report of the incident was given here yesterday when the Givenchy reached port from the West Coast. Following the Empire Day sports carnival at Finlay Cove, Chief Napoleon made the presentation of the headdress as a tribute to the captain of the Givenchy from the Nootka tribe of Indians.

PRINCESS MARY TO GET NEW PROPELLER

Ship Loses Blade on Nanaimo-Vancouver Run—Yarrows Limited Repair Many Vessels

Having dropped a propeller blade during her voyage from Nanaimo to Vancouver on Saturday, the Princess Mary, of the B.C. Coast Service of the C.P.R., was hauled out on the Victoria Machinery Depot ways for repairs yesterday.

The Mary was taking the Charmer's run when the accident to the propeller happened.

The Princess Victoria, which was damaged in a collision with the Princess Marguerite in Vancouver harbor last week, is now at the Esquimalt plant of Yarrows Limited for repairs and a general overhaul. It is expected that the Victoria will not be ready to resume her place in the B.C. Coast Service for about a month.

The Princess Louise, also of the B.C. Coast Service, is being cleaned and painted by Yarrows at the old Esquimalt Drydock. She will be ready for service again tonight.

The Imperial Oil Company's tanker Mina Brea arrived at Yarrows yesterday for engine repairs, which will take four or five days to complete.

The coastwise freighter Matsqui is still at Yarrows wharf while a new engine is being installed, and the Dominion Government Fisheries the H.M.C.S. Armentieres is also alongside the dock for minor repairs.

For Mainland

Bound for Vancouver, the freighter Montreal Maru will reach quarantine today, according to advices received yesterday by King Brothers, local agents for the vessel.

Canadian Pacific Steamship Empress of Asia Arrives From Orient With All Accommodations Crowded

NINETY-FOUR TONS ARE UNLOADED HERE

With all her passenger accommodations crowded with travelers from various parts of China and the Far East, and with a $6,000,000 shipment of silk in her cargo holds, the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Asia docked here from Yokohama at 6:45 o'clock Sunday morning.

Captain L. D. Douglas, R.N.R., commander of the vessel, reported a smooth and uneventful voyage across the Pacific.

An interesting item in the Asia's cargo of 3,260 tons, in view of Soviet Russia's present position in world trade affairs following the break with Britain, is a shipment of furs worth half a million dollars from the Soviet Government to Eastern United States importers.

The Asia's 730 tons of silk were scheduled to be rushed across the continent in special trains. In addition to the silk and furs, the liner carried big consignments of coconut, tea and pineapple, and freight of a general nature.

Ninety-four tons of cargo were put ashore at Victoria. Passengers totaling 530 disembarked, including 390 Filipinos, traveling in the steerage for a United States destination.

Mrs. Mary S. Teusler, wife of the surgeon-general to the American Embassy at Tokio, was a passenger aboard the Asia. Lieutenant-Colonel Boyd, a distinguished British soldier, well known throughout the Orient, was returning from Tientain. Mr. F. S. Chase, an official of the United States Department of State, was en route to Washington, D.C., with Mrs. Chase. Retiring from the Shanghai Municipal Police after thirty-four years of service, Mr. A. Eek came ashore at Victoria with his wife and family.

Other prominent passengers included: Commander Leckie and Lieutenant-Commander Amcotts, of the Royal Navy; Major and Mrs. Anderson, of Manila; Miss L. D. Kirkness, of Calgary, returning home after a cruise around the world; Mr. R. S. O'Meara, of Batavia, Canadian Trade Commissioner, on leave, who debarked here; the Misses Wanklyn and Trotter, of London, round-the-world passengers, who have been organizing Girl Guide units in various ports of the Orient, and many others. The ship sailed for Vancouver at 9 a.m.

Record Set

LONDON, May 30.—A record in British mercantile history was established recently when the Blue Star liner Avila sailed from London to South America. The line had three "first-class" passenger ships at sea, each on her maiden voyage, all launched within a period of twelve weeks, and sailing on the new London-to-South America route.

The time used is Pacific standard for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the tables, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The height is in feet and tenths of a foot, measured from the average level of lower low water.

Esquimalt—To find the depth of water on the sill of the dry dock at any tide, add 18.9 ft. to the height of high water as above given.

Annual General Meeting of Victoria Seamen's Institutes to Be Held—Support Asked

Plans for the future operation of the Victoria Seamen's Institute will be laid at the annual general meeting of the organization at 8 o'clock tonight at the Sailors' Club, Esquimalt.

The meeting will be held under the chairmanship of Colonel A. W. R. Wilby, agent of marine, who is eager to have as many citizens attend as possible.

All who are interested in the praiseworthy effort to improve the lot of the sailor in a foreign port are asked to support the movement.

MISSIONARIES DEPART CHINA

Approximately Four Thousand Mission Workers Are Driven From Posts, Says Church of England Traveler

BISHOP TO ATTEND MEETING OF SYNOD

Approximately 4,000 missionaries have been driven from their posts in China since the first of the year, according to Bishop William C. White, of the Church of England, who arrived here Sunday from Kaifeng, Honan Province, China, aboard the Canadian Pacific liner, Empress of Asia. This number represents two-thirds of the total mission strength in the entire country, he said. Whether the upheaval in the Orient had wrecked their work permanently was a question on which, he said, the missionaries were divided. Many, however, feared it was useless to attempt to resume, he declared.

"My own opinion is that the work conducted by churches with a loose organization will go under," he said. "For ourselves, we saw this coming and prepared for it by establishing a native church. As a result today we have our hospitals and most of our other institutions operating as usual in Honan, managed and staffed by Chinese.

This self-controlled native church will stand while organizations not so firm-rooted in Chinese soil will topple, I think."

The Bishop is on his way to Kingston, Ont., where he will attend the forthcoming general synod of the Church of England in Canada.

TOWN PLANNING IS IMPORTANT

MR. R. F. BLANDY, MUNICIPAL CLERK OF OAK BAY, RETURNS FROM VANCOUVER MEETING

Feels Sure That Co-operation of Municipalities Is Needed to Make It Success

The importance of intermunicipal co-operation in connection with town planning and zoning was emphasized at the town planning meeting held in Vancouver last week, Mr. Blandy, municipal clerk of Oak Bay, stated on his return yesterday.

Vancouver and Point Grey, in conjunction, have engaged an engineering firm in St. Louis to lay down a plan for town planning. This work, Mr. Blandy said, would take some three years to complete, and will include the laying out of arterial highways leading into Vancouver to the best advantage, zoning residential districts so as to keep them residential, and the property values stable, and port development. An eye to the future will always be kept in the planning. For instance, Mr. Blandy stated, it is the plan of the engineers doing the work in Vancouver to provide as much harbor facilities as possible. Sawmills from Coal Harbor to the Second Narrows Bridge would gradually have to be removed so as to confine the waterfront to shipping only. Industrial sections would have to be concentrated, while railway freight sheds would eventually have to be removed from False Creek. It would save the city money in the long run, Mr. Blandy said.

Mr. Whitnall, director of town planning in Los Angeles, told the meeting in Vancouver that it would cost Los Angeles $300,000,000 to repair the negligence of the past. Buildings will have to be torn down and roads widened to solve the traffic problem. Chicago and her twenty surrounding municipalities were having town planning carried out as one region, with particular attention to roads leading into the city.

Mr. Blandy was convinced that Oak Bay, Saanich and Esquimalt should co-operate with Victoria in connection with town planning. He gave several instances where the outer municipalities would be affected by town planning. The "Dardanelles," on Fort Street, affected Oak Bay residents. This was only one of the many cases where municipal co-operation would be necessary, he said.

Berlin's House Shortage

Although a great deal of building is now going on in Berlin, and new apartment houses spring up like mushrooms, it has not yet been possible to overcome the shortage of dwellings caused by the war years. Municipal house agencies were created immediately after the war, and seeking families were entered upon the lists (those with larger families upon the urgent list). Several ugly little scandals served to show that a timely and sufficiently large bribe sometimes led more swiftly to the securing of a home.

A HELPING HAND

Arthur and Alfred were playing noisily though peacefully when Alfred's mother came to tell the visiting Arthur that it was time for him to go home.

She had just turned to re-enter the house after seeing the boy off when her son threw a stone which sent Arthur howling in the direction of home.

"Alfred!" she cried. "Why did you throw that stone at Arthur?"

For a minute the inhospitable boy watched his retreating chum.

"Well," he said, "Arthur had to go home, anyway."

FELT SMALLER STILL

He was a very slim man, and he sat in the omnibus. She was very stout, and stood. The slim man got up and, after digging the woman in the back repeatedly, managed to draw her attention.

"Won't you have my seat?" he inquired politely.

The woman peered towards the place he had just vacated and looked very puzzled.

Finally she turned round to the slim man.

"But whose lap were you sitting on?" she asked.

'NOTORIOUS LADY' SEEN AT CAPITOL

Lewis Stone, Barbara Bedford and Ann Rork Score in Colorful Romance

A colorful adventure, melodramatic in several sequences, and with thrills galore, aside from a beautiful story of the sacrificing love of a good woman for her husband—this is "The Notorious Lady," the First National feature, which opened an engagement at the Capitol Theatre yesterday.

"The Notorious Lady" features Lewis Stone, Barbara Bedford and Ann Rork. It was adapted from the stage success, "The River," by Patrick Hastings.

"The Notorious Lady" is Barbara Bedford. The title is suggested by the notoriety she gets in going on the witness stand to swear away her reputation and thus save her husband (Lewis Stone) on the unwritten law.

On the stage Vance and Violet in "Vaudeville Skits," Krause and Barnes, two dainty dancers, in a dance novelty, and Alma Roscoe, the famous English prima donna, complete the exceptional vaudeville attractions being offered at the Capitol Theatre all this week in conjunction with the feature attraction.

RICHARD DIX HITS FILM HIGH SPOTS

Athletic Hero of Celluloid History Scores in Feature at Dominion This Week

The ever-pleasing Richard Dix, whose athletic ability has become a byword in cinema circles, is again displaying his own particular brand of physical prowess this week at the Dominion Theatre, where "Knockout Reilly," his latest Paramount starring offering is playing.

Cast in a different role from anything he has hitherto portrayed, Dix plays the young wage earner who climbs to fame as an exponent of the "squared circle." As Dundee Reilly, chief puddler in a steel mill, he finds little time for recreation, except of a Saturday night when it is his habit to repair with his friends to a cabaret where Mary Malone is an entertainer. Reilly suddenly discovers that he is the possessor of a wicked punch when he knocks out Killer Agerra (Jack Renault), champion fighter, for making advances to Mary. Mary's brother Pat, former champion who has fallen before Agerra in a fight that he learned afterwards was framed, upon hearing of Reilly's escapade, offers to train him for the ring. But Reilly prefers the industrial life to the packed arena. He changes his mind when he is beaten to a pulp by the vengeful Agerra at the latter's gymnasium.

PLAYHOUSE THEATRE The perfect picture contains drama and comedy mixed in perfect proportion, with a cast that sincerely portrays its parts. If a picture lives up to these requirements, it is sure to draw big crowds. Is "The Old Soak," now at the Playhouse Theatre, perfect? The crowds seem to think it is, and no fault can be found with this admirable presentation of an old toper at his toping. This is Jean Hersholt's first starring vehicle and vindicates the decision of Carl Laemmle in starring a character actor Not only has Hersholt the big role in the picture, but he succeeds through the sheer artistry of his acting in gripping the attention of his audience and winning their hearts by his presentation of the man's weakness.

VARIETY THEATRE An unusual motion picture came to the Variety last night for a week's run. It was "The Return of Peter Grimm." It scored a big hit. A word of advice—don't miss it. For Fox Films version of David Belasco's great drama of life after death reflects credit upon the entire motion picture industry. It shows what a cast of real actors and a director who understands his business can turn out. Janet Gaynor, who is making rapid strides toward the pinnacle with each picture in which she appears, scores heavily in the role of the kindly Peter Grimm's ward. Miss Gaynor brings to the screen a wholesomeness and delicacy that is refreshing. Coupled with this, she is a great actress.

COLUMBIA THEATRE The woman of keen, deceitful wit and the crude, candid woman of strong will are seen in the grips of death for the possession of a man in the pictured version of "Perch of the Devil," the famous novel by Gertrude Atherton, which opened last night at the Columbia Theatre. Mae Busch and Pat O'Malley are co-starred in this tremendous Universal-Jewel drama in which the clash of opposites brings out the best and worst in women. Unvarnished reality is the striking note in all of the productions of King Baggot, and "Perch of the Devil" is no exception to the rule—unless it is that this picture is so exceptionally vivid and true as to set a new rule, even for Baggot. The stars in this production may also be said to set for themselves new standards, for Mae Busch appears in a great role that brings forth emotional qualities hitherto unsounded in this appealing actress.

Myriads of "Hoppers" Frozen in Huge Glacier

Just across the Yellowstone National Park line, and not far from the quaint mining town of Cooke City, Mont., is the Grasshopper Glacier, which is being visited by tourists in increasing numbers each year. Of unknown age, the glacier, pure white, extends about a mile. The upper covering is compact snow, the under layer blue ice. The foot of the glacier breaks off in a vast sheer ice wall, below which runs the mountain river. On all sides are formidable, bare mountain peaks, the elevation of the midsection of the glacier being 10,500 feet. A strange phenomenon gives the ice field its name. The surface to a considerable depth is filled with myriads of frozen grasshoppers. Traces of feet, legs, parts of the bodies and heads can be seen; at times complete, unoxidized specimens can be obtained sound enough to serve as an angler's bait.

CHAPTER XI

Maris now began seriously to consider leaving the club, although she knew that she would be thrown upon the world without employment.

But this was not the greatest fear; it was the thought of leaving Verner.

Yes, it had come to that; she had to acknowledge to herself that she loved him.

She considered for hours that afternoon what she would do, and she came to the conclusion that she would see Verner, tell him all she had experienced, and ask him what it meant.

The opportunity came when he entered her room about five o'clock with a sheaf of letters to answer. The replies to these being taken down in shorthand, Verner was about to leave, but Maris' voice called him back.

She rose from her seat.

"Dr. Verner," she said.

He turned and found her facing him. He looked troubled, but returned into the room, and took his seat again, motioning Maris to do the same.

"What has happened?" he asked.

"A very great deal has happened," she replied; "so much that I think it will be impossible for me to remain in this house."

A look of pain crossed his face.

"Tell me," he said.

She told him of the shriek she had heard in the night and of the discovery of the severed hand near the iron door; she told him how she discovered the next morning that the fragment had disappeared.

As she proceeded he covered his eyes with his hand and remained in that position until she had finished.

Then she told him of De Vasseur's proposition to her that morning in Kensington Gardens, that she should sell information to him which she had learned under an oath of secrecy at the Foreign Office.

But when she had finished, Verner said not a word; he remained with his hand covering his eyes.

"Tell me, Dr. Verner," she asked presently, "what all this means? I came here thinking I was to do the ordinary work of a typist, and I find myself involved in all these horrors. What is it all leading me to?"

Then he removed his hand from his eyes, and there was a look of intense anguish in his face.

"Remember," he said, "that you also made a promise when you came here."

"I did," she answered, and her eyes fell.

"You promised," he continued, "that you would pass nominally as my wife."

He rose from his seat and came towards her, resting his trembling hand on her shoulder and looking into her eyes.

"By that promise," he continued, "I beg of you to trust me."

At once a thought flashed through her mind.

What did he mean by that? Why should she trust him on account of that promise alone? Could he mean—

But his voice interrupted her thoughts.

"And I want you to trust me further still," he continued. "I want you to believe that I have no part in these barbarities, and I was ignorant of what De Vasseur intended to ask you when I consented to your going with him to the park this morning."

She looked into his grey eyes, and knew that she had no power within her to resist him or to doubt his word. She knew in her heart that the only power she possessed was to love him and obey him, and yet—she could never hope to be his wife.

Her voice came at last as she dropped her eyes.

"I believe what you tell me," she said softly.

"And you will trust me whatever happens?" he urged.

"And I will trust you whatever happens," she answered.

He took her hand, and, raising it to his lips, kissed it.

Then she saw him move to the door and pass through it.

But the tears welled to her eyes and fell upon her hand where he had kissed it.

CHAPTER XII

The horror and anxiety which Maris had passed through had left their traces upon her; her sleep now was fitful and full of strange dreams.

But there was one consolation in it all—her love for Verner.

To Maris, who had never loved before, it seemed a most beautiful thing, and although she believed it a hopeless love, yet it consoled her, and probably saved her from breaking down.

But still her sleep was troubled, and she took to wandering about the long passages of the great house at night, a little weird figure, sometimes bathed from head to foot in moonbeams.

But through whatever corridors she passed, her steps always led her to the great iron door, and it was always closed.

But one bright night when she rose sleepless from her bed, she was attracted by a low intermittent humming sound which she had never heard before.

She tried to trace it to its source, but it seemed to pervade the whole house.

She had turned almost by chance into the long corridor at the farther end of which was the iron door when she received a shock, and shrank back into the shadows.

Before her, fully dressed, and walking listlessly towards the iron door was Dr. Verner!

Moved by that force which makes people turn when they are looked at, Verner stopped and turned round.

Maris tried to hide herself, but it was too late; he had seen her.

He came quickly towards her.

"What, Maris!" he exclaimed. "Whatever brings you here at this time of night?"

She noted how he had addressed her, and it sent a thrill of pleasure through her, but she huddled her dressing gown round her and answered him.

"I could not sleep," she said, "so I came out into the corridor to walk and try to tire myself."

"Poor child!" he muttered, half under his breath, "this place has been too much for you."

He suddenly stopped and stood before her, placing a hand on each of her shoulders.

"Maris," he said, "do you want to leave this place?" he asked the question gravely, and stood waiting for her answer.

But Maris' face fell; she knew in her heart that she could not leave him, especially if he were in danger, as she indeed believed they both were.

Perhaps he divined her thoughts. She believed she saw a little smile about his fine mouth.

"If I left here," she replied, "where could I go? I have no friends. I know what unemployment means, too. I would rather—" she continued, but hesitated.

"What would you rather do?" he asked.

"If there is danger here for us both, as I fear there is, I would rather stay here and share it with you."

He stood looking into her eyes for a brief moment, and then took his hands from her shoulders; but he did not refer to the words she had spoken. On the contrary, he quickly changed the subject.

"Maris," he said, "I want you to make me two promises."

"Yes," she answered. "What are they?"

"First, I want you to promise me that you will go back to your room and try to sleep."

"Yes, that is easily done," she answered. "I will promise you that. And the other?"

"I want you to promise me that on no account will you approach the iron door at the end of this corridor."

She gave a half shudder as she thought of the severed hand she had seen there. No; the place inspired her with horror; she did not want to go near it again.

"I promise you that, too," she answered; "but I want you to tell me something. What is that peculiar humming sound which I hear occasionally?"

As if in answer to her question, the sound burst forth again and seemed much nearer. There was not a doubt in Maris' mind that it came from the direction of the iron door.

Verner seemed much upset at her question. He took her arm and turned her away from the iron door.

"Come, Maris," he said without answering her question, "I claim your first promise. Go back to your room."

She knew that she could only obey him, and that without question.

Involuntarily she gave one glance in the direction of the forbidden iron door, then turned away toward her own room.

But his voice followed her.

"Good night, Maris," he said.

"Good night," she answered.

Peculiar Robbery Is Reported From New York

NEW YORK, May 30.—Two "gentlemen" burglars who obtained $90,760 in jewelry and cash from the country home of Jesse L. Livermore, noted Wall Street trader, were hunted throughout the exclusive Long Island colony and in the New York underworld.

The gems and cash were taken from Mr. and Mrs. Livermore and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Garry Aronsohn, shortly before dawn yesterday morning.

Working with extreme politeness, even apologizing to the victims, the thieves returned other jewels worth $69,000 on the tearful pleading of the women and ignored remaining valuables worth $50,000.

The robbers were unmasked. They were about twenty-five years old.

GOOD OR BAD

YOU CAN LEARN THE AUTO TRADE THE practical way and become an expert mechanic, which is good. Or you can read a lot of books and think you know it, which is bad for yourself and for the man you work for. Practical training makes you a mechanic—lectures and books never. We could make more money by teaching you with lectures and save the thousands of dollars we have invested in equipment, but we could not make you expert mechanics. Practical training means perfect work.

NANAIMO HIGH WINS DAVENPORT TROPHY

Defeat Duncan by 157 to 74 in Annual Track and Feld Meet—J. Hawthornwaite Wins Cup

NANAIMO, May 30.—Nanaimo High School students won the Davenport Cup here on Saturday, when they defeated Duncan High School by 157 to 74 points in the interhigh school field meet. The Davenport Cup has been up for annual competition for the past five years, and the locals having won the meet three years in succession, now retain the silverware.

The feature of the meet was the fine work of Hawthorthwaite, who made the highest number of individual points, thirty-five, thus winning the High School Cup for highest marks. His points were scored by winning the shot put, high jump, hop, step and jump, long jump, 880-foot race and the tug of war, his team winning both events. Lionel Good, Nanaimo, took one first, six seconds and one third, a total of twenty-four points. Howard Ormond was third with twenty-three points, three firsts, two seconds and two thirds. For the local girls, Miss Irma Begg scored three firsts, a total of fifteen points, which tied the high-est score for the Duncan girls, Miss B. Brien. Both young ladies will receive a cup.

For the Duncan boys, W. Miller took two firsts, two seconds and one third, a total of seventeen points, thus winning the Duncan School medal for high individual score of that school. S. Grassie, Duncan, was second for his team with eight points.

Following the meet, Mr. Maffeo, donor of the Davenport Cup, announced that he will put up another trophy for competition next year.

BOYS CHOSEN FOR INTERCITY GAME

The first boys' intercity cricket match of the season between Victoria and Vancouver will be played at the University School ground, Mount Tolmie, on June 4. It is explained by the selection committee that owing to the fact that the original date selected for the Brentwood College sports was also June 4 and that this date was not altered until after the team had been selected and acceptances received, the two Brentwood representatives who would have been selected were supposed to be unavailable. The following will represent Victoria: D. C. Gordon (captain), A. G. Tisdall, H. A. Phillips and R. C. Jackson (University School), E. Hambler (Monterey), E. Robinson (Oak Bay High School), H. C. Hammond (St. Michael's), H. Mearns and B. Thomson (St. Aidan's), E. Cox and T. Brien (T. & V.'s.).

Richmond

Is Today's Most Attractive Mining Investment

News that a diamond drill, loaned by the Yukon Government, had been put in operation and disclosed the existence of large bodies of high-grade copper ore has had a marked effect on the market price of Richmond shares.

But the largest profit will be taken by those who buy now, as we can foresee a steady rise as the moment of production approaches. It is said on good authority that Richmond will be in production within sixty days.

Oats, Barley, Flax and Rye Ascend in Sympathy With Wheat—U.S. Buyers in Market

WINNIPEG, May 30.—A regular bull market developed about mid-session today, following a very slow first hour. United States interests made heavy purchases of Winnipeg new crop wheat and prices were carried from 2⅞ to 4¾ cents above Saturday's close. May wheat closed 165⅝, July 167, October 155⅝ and December 151⅝.

Unfavorable weather forecasts figured in the rise. High depression, which is likely to bring cold winds with it and more rain, is predicted for the prairie provinces.

Coarse grains ascended in sympathy with wheat, oats up ½ cent to 2¼ cents, barley 1⅜ to 3⅝ cents, flax 2⅛ to 5⅛ cents and rye 1¼ to 3¾ cents. There was especially heavy buying of flax, oats and barley. Offerings were found to be scarce and prices were bid up easily. The buying appeared to be largely speculative, as no trace could be found of export business.

Cash markets were dull.

Winnipeg Grain Letter

WINNIPEG, May 30.—Wheat: Another advancing market with all the deferred features reaching new high levels for the year. Opening prices were about half cent higher based on the firmer cables than due, but realizing sales carried the market down from 2 to 1 cent under Saturday's close. On the decline buying orders in volume came into the pit, and prices reacted sharply, and on the bulge prices were from 3 to 2⅞ up from Saturday. Outside buying is coming in more freely every day, and the outside public have two-dollar wheat in view. The May future, while higher, was dull, with little trade, this month being evened up and finished. There was very little evidence of export business locally. The weather was again bad in Western Canada, from light to heavy rains being general in Saskatchwan and Alberta, while Manitoba was generally fine over Sunday. It is raining at some points in the West today, and Tuesday's forecast is for showers in all three Provinces, with cool temperatures. Reports from Winter wheat territory indicated weather dry and hot, the reverse of needed conditions in the southwest and in Canada. The whole situation appears to be getting more bullish every day. Broomhall now estimates foreign import requirements at 792,000,000 bushels closely approaching the estimates of some of the leading bulls on this side several months ago and which means only a small world's carry-over into the new crop. We anticipate much higher prices later on, and would advise a conservative bullish position for the present.

Coarse grains: These markets again followed the trend of wheat, and with investment buying in all commodities and shorts forced to cover, substantial gains were recorded. While the situation is not alarming, the season will shortly become late for seeding coarse grains, and warm, dry weather is urgently needed.

Flax: Strong market, final prices being 2¾ to 5⅛ higher. Crushers continue to show small interest, but there is no pressure, and the market advanced in sympathy with the general grain list.

Chicago Grain

WINNIPEG, May 30.—Wheat opened firm in sympathy with strength in Liverpool, but at once met with heavy profit-taking sales from locals. The market declined below previous day's close. Steady accumulation was apparent on the decline, however, and when local professions tried to replace their lines they found the market bare of offerings. The result was a sharp upturn with substantial buying which appeared to be from American houses with southwestern connections. The advance was maintained right to the close, closing prices being 2⅞ to 4⅛ cents higher. May wheat again lost ground and is now practically at the carrying charge under the July option. Very heavy rains were experienced in Southern Alberta, with showers more or less general elsewhere in the West, and further unsettled weather forecasted. There were rains reported in Southern Texas, but nothing in Kansas, where moisture is urgently needed. It is doubtful if all of today's advance will be maintained unless substantial leadership comes from American markets. For the time being would confine purchases to recessions.

A sufficient sum will be withheld by the liquidator to pay a dividend if it should be ordered on contested claims of $133,397.

Payment of $5,000 on account of the liquidator's remuneration was sanctioned by the judge.

LENGTHY CHINESE STRIFE PREDICTED

Order Will Not Be Restored for Long Time, Says Visitor—Sir Harold Parlett Returns

Order will not be restored in China for a great many years, in the opinion of Mrs. O. St. Clair O'Malley, wife of the adviser to the British Legation at Peking, who passed through Victoria Sunday aboard the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Asia.

After spending fifteen months in the Orient, Mrs. O'Malley is en route to England with her son and two daughters.

Conditions in Peking were as quiet and peaceful as those of an English country village when she left the city, Mrs. O'Malley said. Of the Hankow agreement she said:

"Speaking for the modern Chinese, the stand taken by Great Britain has met with their approval. They consider Britain has gone a long way, and they were more than pleased with the Hankow agreement, and also the terms of the note announced by Britain around last Christmas."

Sir Harold G. Parlett, counsellor to the British Embassy at Tokio for the past eight years, was also aboard the Asia, en route to London. He has served Great Britain in the Far East in various capacities for the last forty years and is now retiring from his Tokio Embassy post.

Sir Harold was a student interpreter in Japan when he was twenty-one years old. Later he was appointed acting-registrar of the British Court in Yokohama, and the following year was appointed assistant secretary of His Majesty's legation in Tokio. This was followed by consulate positions at Hakodate, Nagasaki and finally Dairen.

For several months before his departure, Sir Harold had been seriously ill. He is now making good progress toward recovery.

Sir Harold has left behind him in Japan two outstanding memorials which will keep his name in the thoughts of the Japanese people for years to come. Probably his most important contribution to the civilization of the country is his English-Japanese dictionary, which he compiled in conjunction with E. M. Hobart-Hampden, and which has made him especially well-known. Another almost as popular act was the stocking by him twenty-five years ago of the Yukawa River with trout. These trout, a live shipment of which was taken to Japan in 1899 by Sir Harold, have thrived wonderfully in the Yukawa, and have made the place a noted resort for anglers. They have been christened "parlett," after him.

SCHOOLS WILL HONOR DIAMOND JUBILEE

Minister Urges Teachers to Co-operate to Fullest Extent in Celebration

In an appeal that has been sent out by the Minister of Education, Hon. J. D. MacLean, the admonition of the chairman of the executive of the National Celebration Committee at Ottawa is repeated to the teachers of the Province in connection with the observance of Dominion Day this year, the Diamond Jubilee of the Confederation. This reads as follows:

"In every programme there should be a clear, strong, dominant note of patriotism that will inspire confidence in, love for, and devotion to our country. An impression should be left on the minds and in the hearts of all who call Canada "Home" that will tend to quicken the national soul and encourage the development of a robust, self-reliant, national spirit, without which no country can ever attain real greatness."

The Minister urges upon each teacher in the Province to lend every assistance to the local committee in charge of the celebrations throughout the country so that every child shall have brought to its attention the full importance of the event that is being observed. The teachers are urged to make the sacrifice of remaining in the school district in which they are teaching until the celebration is over, if at all possible.

If it is impossible so to do they are asked to leave some person or a committee approved of by the school board to look after the part taken by the children in the demonstration that the community may be holding. It is impressed upon the teachers that the children must be given the opportunity of sharing to the fullest in the marking of the event.

With respect to the school work the Minister impresses upon the teachers the necessity of bringing the importance of this event in the history of the country to the attention of all classes in the schools.

COWICHAN BAY IS VISITED BY AGENTS

Transportation Men Hold Luncheon at Picturesque Up-Island Resort—Addresses Are Given

COWICHAN BAY, May 30.—Ticket agents of the Canadian National Railways from the East visited Cowichan Bay as guests of the Grey Line and the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau at a luncheon held at the Cowichan Bay Inn. Mr. E. T. P. Pringle, general agent, passenger department of the Canadian National system, presided. Several addresses were made.

Mr. George I. Warren, publicity commissioner, called attention to the natural resources of Vancouver Island, pointing out that lumber manufactures, commercial fishing and mining were three of the greatest activities in the district. He called the meeting's attention to the agricultural possibilities of the Cowichan Valley, and referred to the activities of the Duncan Board of Trade in developing agricultural production.

Mr. H. B. Olson, proprietor of the Gray Lines, addressed the meeting on the transportation facilities on Vancouver Island, and announced that within the next two weeks additional stage service would be operating between all points between Nanaimo and Victoria, leaving each terminal at about 7.30 every night.

Mr. H. J. Erickson, vice-president of the Yellow Cab Company, invited those present to visit Seattle, and to see that city as guests of his company.

Mr. Pringle closed the meeting by thanking the Gray Line, the Publicity Bureau, the Mill Bay Ferry operators and others for courtesies extended during their trip to the Bay.

Shawnigan Farmers' Institute Revises Fall Show List

COBBLE HILL, May 30.—A thorough revision of the Fall Fair catalogue was made at a meeting of the directors of the Shawnigan Farmers' Institute on Saturday, several new classes being added.

A resolution from the Saltair Institute on Oriental employment was laid on the table. An effort will be made to send individual and collective potato exhibits to the Vancouver Exhibition.

As the Cowichan Creamery is not prepared to sell potatoes on a commission basis, it was thought that the Institute might have storage facilities of its own for produce. This will probably be brought up at the next annual meeting.

This Institute will not in future give a rebate on more than ten cases of powder per year per member.

A report of the Spring Show at Shawnigan Lake stated that the balance was $8.09. This was considered satisfactory, considering that no donations towards expenses were made.

At the close of the evening refreshments were served by the parents and teachers and a social time enjoyed. The proceeds of the entertainment were in aid of the piano fund, which is steadily growing.

No Gray Today!

Fear of crude dyes no longer excuses gray hair. You don't have to use them. Kolor-Bak is a clean, colorless liquid that cannot harm the hair; and it does bring back the color. Not the weird hues women used to get from old-fashioned hair-dyes, but the color your hair ought to be—the color it used to be.

Kolor-Bak acts gently; the change is gradual. That's why your closest friend can't detect it. Hair is left lustrous; only the gray is gone. Blonde, auburn, brown, black—any shade responds to this natural process. The one bottle is right for all.

Why experiment with anything, even on one lock of hair, when Kolor-Bak always gets the same perfect result—on a money-back guarantee!

LIBERAL OFFICE FOR PROPAGANDA

OLIVER GOVERNMENT COLLECTING MATERIAL TO BE SCATTERED IN PROVINCE

Modesty Lacking in Literature Prepared for Electorate—Preparatory to Campaign

The opening of an office in this city by the Provincial Liberal Association is largely for the purpose of spreading propaganda for the Government in the Province. The office opened here, it is announced, is not so much an organizing office in the accepted sense of that term. It is rather for the collection of material from the Government offices, and the dissemination of it among the Liberal associations, with the ultimate idea that it may be used in winning support for the Party.

The members of the Government have long believed their record is one that should win them support, and that the main reason for loss of favor with the electorate has been that the latter did not realize what a good and efficient Government they had.

It has become very common to hear statement to this effect made by members of the Government at meetings of Liberal Associations. The decision has been reached that in preparation for the next election there is to be no modesty practised. The electors are to know what has been done, and a campaign of propaganda is now to be launched.

The work of getting the material together for dissemination is now in progress. This is available at the offices of the departments in the Government Buildings, and it will be presented in shape to court support in the country.

Ministers have been given to stating at ward meetings that they have been so busy in well-doing for the country that they have neglected going forth and telling what is going on. They are now to spread the evangelism of good works done for the Province, and in this matter the aid of the local propaganda office is to be employed.

This action is the beginning of the campaign to be continued until the election is called. The issuance of this propaganda is but the forerunner of the election campaign, and preparatory to it.

Drinking Party Ends In Death and Prison

CHICAGO, May 30.—A gin party that started in the room of a University of Chicago student has ended, for John Harper, twenty-one, in the morgue; for Daniel Baldwin, twenty, in a hospital, and for eight others, in jail.

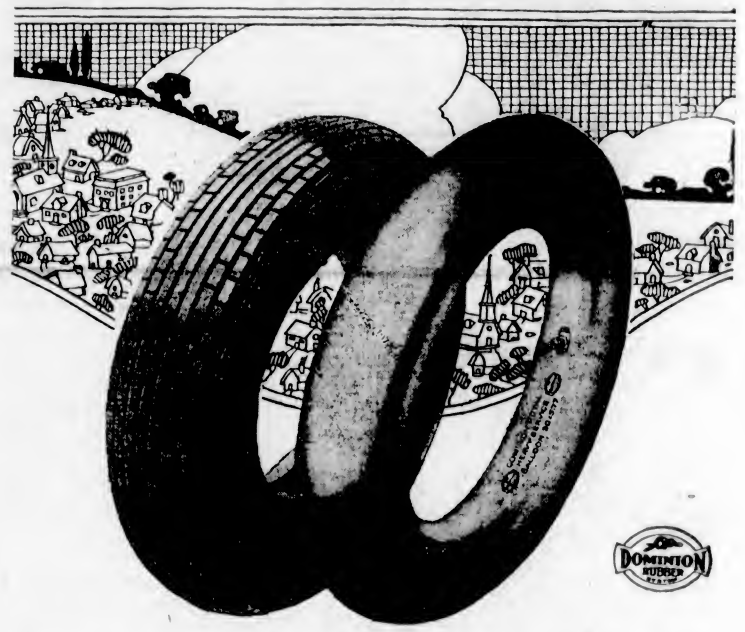

A pint and a half of drugstore gin—poisoned or not, the police have not determined—was consumed by the two early Sunday, according to their companions. Harper became unconscious and was dead when a physician arrived. Baldwin, too, was unconscious, but was saved by prompt emergency treatment.

The eight are held in jail technically as government witnesses, with the possibility of one or more manslaughter charges being made following further investigation.

Requests for Stories Received at Bureau

The Columbia Port Digest, a marine paper published at Portland, Oregon, has written the Publicity Bureau requesting a series of articles on Vancouver Island for publication. They require detailed information on the port, fishing, lumber, pulp, water power, mineral resources, fish reduction, whaling, country life and farming.

The May issue of the Scottish Field contains a two-page article on British Columbia gulf islands, from the pen of Mr. F. Giolma, publicity bureau writer. The article contains several views of island homes and yachting scenes.

These Tire-Mates prolong the life of your tire

THE most expensive part of a tire is the casing. Dominion Royal Tubes are built to protect and prolong the life of the casing.

You may save a dollar by buying a cheap tube and lose many times that amount in damage to the casing of your tire.

Dominion Royal Tubes are uniform and smooth in action. They are non-porous and do not gradually leak so that the casing runs at too low an air pressure, which causes irreparable damage before the driver is aware that his tire is in danger.

The Dominion Royal Tube and Dominion Royal Cord Balloons fit each other with precision and exactitude, making them perfect in their action. In fact, any tire would be the better for using Dominion Royal Tubes because there is not a better tube made.
